

Subtlety Competition II

As a celebration of the occasion of the Ninth Birthday of her ward Her Excellency Elfsea is seeking entrants for a Subtlety Competition.

The Theme of the Competition is A Birthday Cake decorated with "Favorite Things"

The favorites are those identified by HE Amalia's ward

Vivienne

Which follow:

Princesses dancing and scales on dragons
Bright sugar castles and marzipan kittens
Brave knights jousting on horses with wings
These are a few of my favorite things

Blue colored seashells and undersea merfolk
Flowers and Pixies and all of the fair folk Unicorns that fly with the moon on their wings
These are a few of my favorite things

Cakes in white sugar with blue icing touches
Chocolate without fruity fillings
Something to share with friends by the dozen
These are a few of my favorite things

In short, a cake decorated to please a young lady turning nine the week of the event
- Small cakes (say the size of one box of cake mix
- round or square) are sufficient.
Vivienne's favorite will receive a prize basket full of items chosen to delight a baker.
