Greetings to the good people of Elfsea and Dragonsfire Tor,

This Barony continues to find ways to outdo the previous month. His Excellency had a wonderful time at Steppes Twelfth Night. There was much laughter and overall a great atmosphere. The Barony was in great display at Crown Tournament. Congratulations go to TRH Gabriel and Sonja. We have placed a bid to host Their Coronation. We will know if we received the bid by the time the Tidings are published.

Roundtable went very well for Elfsea. We are current with all of our reporting! Vivat to our fine officers for their hard work and dedication. We even started up a war. Beginning in 2017, we will be part of an annual Central Region war – The Braggart's War. We will be battling Steppes and Bonwicke. We will discuss this more during the year.

February is looking great. We have workshops planned on the 13th and 27th. We will be prepping for Gulf Wars, but do not let that stop you. Bring anything you are currently working on and enjoy the company. If you can't attend war, there is still opportunity to spend time with other members of the Barony and sling some paint.

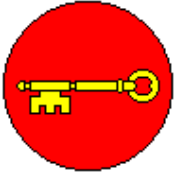

For those attending Gulf Wars, please pay attention to the mailing lists and Facebook page for updates.

Vivat Dragonsfire Tor! Vivat Elfsea!

William and Cassandra
Baron and Baroness of Elfsea
Lord and Lady of Dragonsfire Tor

Officer Reports

Seneschal: Lady Aoife Ruadh inghean Ragnail
(seneschal@elfsea.ansteorra.org)

Deputies: Oliver Blankenship and Justin Eads

Greetings, Elfsea:

Our barony is steamrolling into 2016 with a To-Do List of opportunities longer than my arm, which, I happen to know from costuming, is exactly 24" from shoulder-to-wrist. What this means is that we should all buckle-up. It is going to be a great ride.

As you may know from follow-up notes, we are submitting a bid to the Kingdom to host the Coronation event in April. If we are successful in our bid attempt, the event will occur no less than one week after our scheduled Defender event. Talk about dual coordination and a full spring time! Additionally, Their Excellencies have requested our Baronial College to move from August to September. If approved, it provides more breathing room between our two main events. Add to that our normal Arlington Library Demo in October and the triennial Boy Scout Jamboree Demo in November and we are due for a very full fall as well. It is a really good thing Elfsea has a talented, capable, and energetic membership base. Everyone can get in on the fun!

On the business front, Elfsea has two upcoming vacancies on the Finance Committee. One position is reserved for a current Elfsea Officer and the other is an At-Large position. The positions are open for nominees until next populace meeting. Send nominations via email and include the following finance committee members:

- Baron@elfsea.ansteorra.org
- Baroness@elfsea.ansteorra.org
- Seneschal@elfsea.ansteorra.org
- Exchequer@elfsea.ansteorra.org

Note that we also have a slew of upcoming Officer vacancies now open for application:

Web Minister	Knight Marshal
Archery Marshal	Exchequer
Minister of Arts & Sciences

If you a desire to organize and coordinate a demo, autocrat an event, become an officer with this fine group, or simply volunteer to assist, we have some excellent opportunities this year. Let me know and I will get you connected with the right process and/or person.

In Service,
Lady Aoife Ruadh inghean Ragnail

Greetings Elfsea!

It is with great joy that I announce Lady Cecilia of Kent as my deputy. You have seen and heard her at many events heralding court. I am elated that is now official as she is a wonderful asset to the Barony.

Throughout our great Barony many are preparing for war! For many this means vigorous training. For others, like myself, it means banner painting! Please check your calendar for classes and events being held by some of our wonderful artisans. Displaying your device or arms helps create the dream, something we all strive for.

This month I will be having an informal Heraldry night at my home on Thursday, February 11th from 6:30 - 8pm. I'll have all the books available, two computers, forms, pens and pencils. If you'd like to come do a little guided research please email me for my address herald@elfsea.ansteorra.org. I hope to have "the great" Don Andreas von Meissen in attendance, schedule permitting. Guild Principal Reports

Academie Pedagogue

Jeanne Marie la Verriere

As the semester starts to draw to a close, we can look back and realize that we have covered A LOT of ground! We know how the SCA began, we have some good ideas about persona, heraldry, the clothing we want to wear, and the things we might want to learn. We have enjoyed our first events, attended our first courts, and been witness to some wonderful moments. It can be a very magical, special place for us all.....but have you ever considered the people who are making the magic happen? I am talking about our volunteers, those who plan and run events, those who serve as officers, those who run gate and the fighting fields, and help our children have fun? In this class, we will introduce you to service and volunteering, SCA-style. You will learn the various ways you can help out, and you will find that doing service within the SCA can be great fun, and is extremely rewarding. You can even add the things you've done within the SCA on your mundane resume!

This will be the eighth of nine lecture-style classes, with the goal of these classes being to provide everyone with the tools, knowledge, and understanding to enjoy the SCA to its fullest. So, with that said, here are the details for the eighth class of the semester:

Service and Volunteering in the SCA Monday, February 1, 2016 7pm - 9pm

This class will be taught by Master Sebastian, who was a founding member of the Academie, and is a Companion of the Order of the Pelican.

The classroom where we will be holding class will be in the Polytechnic United Methodist Church on the Texas Wesleyan campus, which is located at the corner of E Rosedale St and Collard St.  Please park in the church parking lot, which is behind the church building. If the lot is full, there is street parking also. To find the classroom, please enter the church - proceed down the three stairs and through the stained glass area, then continue down the hallway. We will be in the smaller conference room. Be looking for myself and/or milady Catherine, as always we will help you find the classroom if you should accidentally get lost.

Kid friendly; food and drink are permitted; note-taking materials and camera phones are welcome. A friendly reminder: ALL classes are SCA-clothing optional! You may wear street clothes, work clothes, or SCA clothing, the choice is yours.

Gulf War Update

Gulf Wars XXV is March 12th through 19th. Registration is open and can be found here:

<http://www.gulfwars.org/index.php/registration>

Elfsea and Dragonsfire Tor will be camping together within the Ansteorran encampment. Countess Amelot is our land coordinator. Our land allotment is determined by the number of people registered for the event. In order to be added to our allotment, please perform these steps:

- Register, using the link above, by February 15th
- Indicate in your registration that you will be camping with Ansteorra
(Kingdom of Residence - Ansteorra, Group Camping With - Ansteorra, "If "Other" was chosen , please type in the group name below" - Barony of Elfsea)
- Send an email to Countess Amelot indicating that you have registered and the size (including ropes) of the tent you will be using at the war. Her address is roseamelot@gmail.com.

Building on the display presented at Tournament of Champions, we want to increase our camp presence. One of the ways to increase our presence is with camp walls. These will be canvas walls used to signify our camp. This is a great opportunity for you to express yourself and tell people we are there.

The first work weekend is coming up February 13 and will be open to all. Even if you are unable to attend the war, you are welcome to attend. Painting banners/walls is a good time. We even manage to get some of the paint on the material.
