Greetings to the good people of Elfsea and Dragonsfire Tor,

We open this month with hearty congratulations to Baroness, now Doña, Rixende de Rouen, the newest White Scarf of Ansteorra. This is such great news!

The Barony traveled all over the Kingdom this month. Several of us went to Bryn Gwlad for Candlemas. Johanna de Verona taught a wonderful beginner embroidery class. Kingdom A&S was also on the calendar. Congratulations to HL Elizabeth de Salisbury and Lady Cecilia of Kent for being named Gulf War alternates. Several members of the Barony also attended War College. It is great to see the Barony showing up throughout the Kingdom.

Gulf Wars will be less than two weeks away by the time these words are read. It has been 20 years since our last Gulf Wars. We are very much looking forward to sharing this experience with you. The last headcount had Elfsea at over 40 attendees! Thank you to Lady Liadan for hosting the A&S Workshops in February. Much of the work involved Gulf Wars prep.

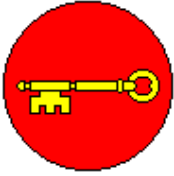

Please don't forget about our upcoming events – Defender and Coronation for Elfsea, and Queens and Guardian of the Tor for Dragonsfire Tor. The stewards for these events can always use volunteers. Remember, this is our opportunity to host the Kingdom and share our hospitality with them.

Vivat Dragonsfire Tor! Vivat Elfsea!

William and Cassandra
Baron and Baroness of Elfsea
Lord and Lady of Dragonsfire Tor

Deputies: Caelin on Andrede, Oliver
Blankenship, and Justin Eads

Greetings, Elfsea:

An army marches on its stomach.

A barony marches on reports, meetings, and events.

In Elfsea, each officer carries a great responsibility to their fellow populace members to maintain the business requirements set by Kingdom and Society. Many officers were new when we started this journey to excellence in late 2014--- but over time, each has truly “owned” their position. As a barony, we have seen innovative ideas, fresh projects, and an increase in events, demos, and active participation from an engaged and talented populace.

I would like to take the time to thank the Officer Corps for its singular dedication to keeping the baronial business running efficiently and with many successes. More importantly, this group of fourteen officers formed a real, knowledgeable, motivated, and fun team.

But, Alas! Time passes and many of our officers have fulfilled their terms of service. We have many positions that are currently (or soon to be) open for applications. It is at this point, I turn to a very talent-rich populace and seek out fresh faces to continue the journey and keep Elfsea strong. Yes—Elfsea needs YOU!

Current positions open for application include:

- * Web Minister
- * Knight Marshal
- * Archery Marshal
- * Exchequer
- * Minister of Arts & Sciences
- * Chamberlain
- * Nautilus Pursuivant

The officer meetings are fun, informative, and, as a member of the Officer Corps, you will have a real chance to help people live their dream in a vibrant, healthy barony. If you are new, come and dip your toe in the water. Get involved. We provide training. You can do this!

We are also seeking volunteer coordinators for our two large demos in October (Arlington Library) and November (Boy Scout Jamboree). Contact me if you are interested in any type of service.

In Service,
Lady Aoife Ruadh inghean Ragnail
Seneschal

Greetings from your Exchequer! The barony continues to be in fine financial shape, so much so that we are able to front all of the advance funds needed for two events a week apart (Defender and Coronation) before receiving any income from either one.

I (along with several other Elfsea officers and interested populace members) attended the kingdom winter roundtable in late January. The kingdom's financial policy was reviewed and clarification received on several issues raised, specifically related to running gate at events. I was also able to confer with the kingdom's Domesday report deputy for advice on completing the barony's end of year report.

This position will remain open for applications until March 31, 2016. Please feel free to contact me if you would like more information.

I hope you enjoy the few changes made to the Tidings this month. I am open for suggestions on formatting and content. Just send me an email to the address next to my name above.

Also, I am new to the position, but it is never too early to ask for deputies. The Tidings production is a creative way to serve the Barony and the Kingdom. Please consider being the Chronicler Deputy!

The A&S community is on the move as we all prepare for Gulf Wars and look forward to many local events thereafter. Be watching for information regarding the A&S competition to be held at Elfsea Defender, it's going to be awesome!

For those who were able to join us at the two Elfsea Weekend Workshops held at Theatre Arlington, I sincerely hope you enjoyed the day. Lady Liaden, your gracious hostess, has more ideas up her sleeve for more workshops and classes, so be watching for updates and information.

As my time as your MOAS comes to a close, I would like to thank Their Excellencies William and Cassandra for their continued efforts on behalf of the A&S community, my wonderful deputy Lady Liaden for all her hard work, and my amazing husband, Sir Daire de Haya, for his constant and unwavering support. Academie Pedagogue

Jeanne Marie la Verriere

Can you believe it's been 9 months since this semester began? I sure can't! We have all learned SO MUCH, and we are in the home stretch of this, the second semester of the Academie. I just want to say, before I begin the intro of our last class, how very proud I am of all of you. The material we have presented has been a lot to take in, and while I hope it was educational, I also hope it was a lot of fun to learn.

Over the past 8 months, we've learned most of what you will need as new members of the Barony and the Kingdom to enjoy everything and anything that can be found in the SCA. I hope we have inspired you to try new things, to enjoy all the wonder and excitement that European history has to offer, and that you are starting to find your 'niche' within our wonderful group. One area we have yet to travel into is a very specialized one, but one I think you will all enjoy - The Courtly Graces and Behavior in the SCA. This class will help you understand what the courtly graces are, how to incorporate them into your SCA 'persona-play', and a more in-depth discussion on behavior in the SCA, both what you will encounter and what is expected.

This will be the ninth of nine lecture-style classes, with the goal of these classes being to provide everyone with the tools, knowledge, and understanding to enjoy the SCA to its fullest. So, with that said, here are the details for the ninth and final class of the semester:

The Courtly Graces and Behavior in the SCA

Monday, March 7, 2016 7pm - 9pm

This class will be taught by Sir Daniel de Burdon and Mistress Adelaide de Bourbon, both of whom have been active in the SCA for many years, and can answer any question you may have on this topic.

**The classroom where we will be holding class will be in the Polytechnic United Methodist Church on the Texas Wesleyan campus, which is located at the corner of E Rosedale St and Collard St. **

Please park in the church parking lot, which is behind the church building. If the lot is full, there is street parking also. To find the classroom, please enter the church - proceed down the three stairs and through the stained glass area, then continue down the hallway. We will be in the smaller conference room. Be looking for myself and/or milady Katherine, as always we will help you find the classroom if you should accidentally get lost.

Kid friendly; food and drink are permitted; note-taking materials and camera phones are welcome.

A friendly reminder: ALL classes are SCA-clothing optional! You may wear street clothes, work clothes, or SCA clothing, the choice is yours.

The address is:

The Polytechnic United Methodist Church
Texas Wesleyan University
1201 Wesleyan St.
Fort Worth, TX 76105

I will have my phone with me if anyone gets lost - 817-557-7472.

See you all there!!

Wordfame is the common chivalry of the Barony as well as congratulatory messages. Please feel free to use the webform to submit wordfame.

- ★ A member of the populaces wishes to offer wordfame to Lady Silvana Corwin. Lady Silvana is one of the hardest working people in the Barony. Whether it's working with the children or pumping out a massive amount of charters or creating original scrolls for the kingdom, she is an example to all of how to serve with a smile. Thank you, Lady Silvana, for all your hard work! We appreciate you!
- ★ Baron William and Baroness Cassandra wish to offer wordfame to Master Sebastian Eton Frobishire for teaching this month's Academie class. You are a fine example of the subject you discussed – service!
- ★ Baron William and Baroness Cassandra wish to offer wordfame to m'Lady Johanna da Verona for teaching at Candlemas. Her Excellency learned a new stitch.
