Greetings to the good gentles of Elfsea and Dragonsfire Tor,

Whew! June is always a welcome break from the Winter-Spring travel schedule. We have made it two years as your Baron and Baroness. The second year has gone much more smoothly and it is due to the hard work and help from YOU, the Barony.

Congratulations are in order for two families on the arrival of their new family members. Welcome Max to his family of Absolon, Silvana, Isabella and Aila! Welcome, Declan, to his parents Conall and Mavis! We were able to meet Max at Warlord. We are looking forward to meeting Declan.

Guardian of the Tor was a wonderful weekend. Thank you to our past Champions. Please join us in welcoming your new Dragonsfire Tor Champions:

Count Sir Creppin for Chivalric
Lord Isaac for Rapier
Solmundr for Archery
Baroness Lauretta for Bard

We introduced some scenarios to the bear pits. The fighters seemed to enjoy the scenarios. They took them in good humor and the crowd enjoyed the playfulness exhibited.

Braggart's War is shaping up. There has been quite a bit of banter and showmanship over the past few weeks. Each set of Barons and Baronesses have made a point of attending the each other's events and getting in a bit of shenanigans. Please make every effort to attend the war. It will be a great time!

The Barony is operating in the black this year based on the success of Coronation and Defender. We have asked the officers to look at what immediate or long-term needs they might have and put together a list of items for the finance committee to consider.

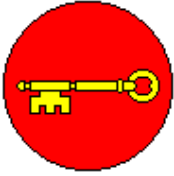

We will have a lighter travel schedule for June and July. Our progress is below.

Thank you for all of your support these past two years.

William and Cassandra
Baron and Baroness

Baronial Progress
King's College – June 10th
Crown Tournament – July 8th

Officer Reports

Seneschal: Master Caelin on Andrede
(seneschal@elfsea.ansteorra.org)

Deputies: Justin Eads, Guyon Dupree and Sebastian Frobishire

Events

Life in the Barony has been good, but still busy. Several of us attended the Myrgenfeld Cooking Collegium in Guthrie, OK. HL Eleanor reported at the Cook's Guild on the great classes. Queen's Champion saw many from Elfsea and DFT competing and HL Guyon nearly winning it. The site was as nice as any I've seen.

Guardian of the Tor was grueling for the fighters: archery, chivalric, and rapier with the first kingdom cut and thrust tournament added in. Much fun was had and the feast was wonderful. Lord Franklin and his crew deserve accolades.

Steppes Warlord completed the month with great fighting, great archery, and the elevation of Mistress Deanna to the Laurel.

We will have several people teaching at King's College in Allen (semi-local). It is always a wonderful experience and I recommend it to new or experienced members. The Ansteorran Heraldic and Scribal Symposium (and Pelican circle) will attract many to Raven's Fort on the 17th of June.

In July we will have Crown Tournament, Roundtable, and Pennsic.

Guilds

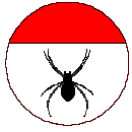

Our guilds have been active and I expect that to continue. Special thanks to the Scribal Guild which has been turning out wonderful scrolls despite the principal giving birth. (Elfsea is growing) The Cooks' Guild will be starting a new series of training sessions beginning with knife skills in June (as always the second Tuesday).

General

I now have all the 170+ published Compleat Anachronist pamphlets except number 128, which is out of print. Someone has offered to give me a copy of that. This is interesting because I'm willing to share. You can find the list of titles on www.sca.org.

I've used titles (or their initials) when I gave names. If you would like to know what they mean please contact me or any of the experienced members. Perhaps we can get someone to do an article on titles.

Don Alaric's Quote

"A wise man told a joke. Everyone who heard it laughed like crazy. After a moment, he told the same joke again. This time, less people laughed. He told the same joke again and again, and when, finally, there was no laughter in the crowd, he smiled and said: "You can't laugh at the same joke again and again, but why do you keep crying over the same thing over and over again?"
