March 2018

Missive from our Excellencies

Greetings Wonderful Barony,

We have once again had a whirlwind month throughout our Barony. We had several entries represent our Barony at Kingdom Arts and Science. Our congratulations to HL Aurelia, who was chosen as an alternate to represent Ansteorra at Gulf War in the A and S competition.

Our fighters have been busy looking for a new practice location. It looks like they have found a great site at The Heights Park in Richardson. It is close to both 75 and 635.

By the time that this missive reaches you the preparations for many wonderful future events are underway. Gulf War will soon be here. The Ansteorra army is busy practicing maneuvers. Everyone is sewing and checking on their camping gear. If you can't go this year now is the time to prepare for next year. Ask for vacation now! Start saving or working extra now, to pay for the trip.

Right after Gulf War we will have a wonderful Populace in the Park event March 25th. Keep watching for the details. If you do not have a copy yet of our new Populace Events please copy the one found later in the newsletter. We once again have an entire year of fun and adventures planned!

Looking not too far into the future Steppes Warlord is around the corner. Our autocrats Lord Thorin Sykes and Lord William Swindell have some excellent plans to ensure a fun event of which the Steppes can be very proud. Please volunteer to help make the event the success it deserves to be.

As spring events happen, please come camp and sit with us at events!

Thank you for making our Barony So Great!
Peter and Sarah

Words from our Seneschal

Greetings Mighty Oakwood,

I want to thank Lords William and Terrance for stepping up to be the autocrats for Steppes Warlord 2018. These two gentlemen already have some outstanding activities planned for the event. There is talk of dance and drumming classes, the return of the Artisans Enclave, and a Hafla planned along with the usual Champions bouts.

This means that he will need a lot of help in filling positions and getting the event going. If you too can step up to the challenge of helping with Steppes Warlord please contact William or Terrance.

For the great contingency that will be traveling to Gulf War, I wish you smooth roads and safe travels. I hope to see each one of you at the war. It's time to make sure your gear is sound, your kit is together, and your transportation reliable. Please remember to volunteer when and where you can. If we each volunteer a little, our friends get to come out to play with us more.

Steppes looks to have a great encampment this year next to our sister Barony Elfsea. This will give us the opportunity to take advantage of Sir Mahdi taking over M. Caelin's meal plan. It looks to be delicious. We also have another option being offered for the Barony of the Steppes for those with simpler tastes, such as myself. Make sure you have contacted Baroness Sara and joined the Facebook group for those going to Gulf War and camping with Steppes.

Also, because of Gulf War, I am moving the date of the March Business Meeting to March 22. This will keep us from having to impose upon the A&S night. Please make note of the change in date only for March.

As always take care of yourselves and each other.

We are a Mighty Oakwood,
We are Family,
We are a Barony,
WE ARE STEPPES!

Words from our Officers

Greetings Steppes!

Things continue to look good financially for the Steppes. January was a busy month but February has been fairly quiet. We've handled the last of the event-related paperwork from January and the total accounts stand at $23,201.29 as of January 31. I expect a modest increase for February as some event deposits were returned. Warlord preparations should start in the near future.

As a reminder, there is still a position open on the Financial Committee for an at-large member of the populace. If you would like to apply to be on the financial committee, please fill out an Ansteorran Officer Application form (from the Ansteorran website) and send it to me and our seneschal. Responsibilities of the Financial Committee are in the Steppes Financial Policy.

We are still looking for a place to store our Baronial trailer; if you run across any likely places please let me, Dragos, or Aurelia know.

I would like to have loaner garb available at all events, but I NEED some deputies willing to help with that. I'm also looking for deputies to help me shepherd newcomers and help acclimate them at their first few events.

We've had inquiries during the business meeting at Half Price Books, at Archery Practice and at Populace in the Park in Carrollton, even while at the Perth Street shopping field trip.

Words from our Officers

Greetings to the great Barony of the Steppes

We're trying out a new venue for joint fighter practice with both rapier and heavy. It is an outdoor venue and, as of this writing, the weather has only cooperated for one practice. While I have not visited the site during any of these frog-strangling gully-washers we've been having, I have dropped by after a day of ordinary rain to find that the field drains quite well and the turf was decent for fairly quick movement. There are a few bare spots, but it's not generally muddy. Let's give this place a chance. It's Heights Park in Richardson. 801 N. Floyd Rd. We will be in the middle parking lot to the north of the baseball fields. West side of Floyd Road and maybe 150 to 200 yards south of Arapaho. Tuesday at 7:00 pm is still practice time.

As always, watch for posts and e-mails for the status of any given practice. Consider the practice is ON unless I post otherwise. I will try to call each practice by Monday night, but this is Ansteorra where the weather can be quite unpredictable so please stay tuned. If you're not already a member you may wish to join Steppes Rapier Practice and/or Barony of the Steppes FB groups and you can add yourself to the official Steppes email list by going to Ansteorra.org and then following the Social tab.

Who will serve as Steppes Rapier Marshal when my tenure ends? I realize it's hard to do with the weather being uncooperative, but you should show your interest with your level of activity. This change is still several months down the road, so more details and official application instructions will be forthcoming at the appropriate time. If you're interested in this position and haven't let me know yet, please do so. If you think you may be interested but want to know more about the office, please, feel free to call me at (214) 773-5415 or contact me privately. We can always use good deputies as well. By the way, if anyone finds a centrally located, indoor practice venue, preferably free, we'd love to hear about it.

Words from our Officers

Hello Steppes fighters!

Alas, the season of rain and cold. Rejoice! There is end in sight! Our new meeting location at Heights Park is quite lovely, and easy to access. It drains well, so unless it is actively raining, its ok to play. Please join us for weekly practices. We will be attempting to add structure to our practices, so if you have wants, needs, or ideas.... Let us know!

Loaner gear always available, please let us know via the Steppes Facebook page or at marshal@steppes.ansteorra.org if you are attending our practice for the first time.

Words from our Officers

Greeting Steppes,

Youth Boffer has not had much interest lately as many of our youth have aged up or are extremely busy. Loaner gear still available as needed. Always looking for new youth to get involved and new parents to authorize as marshals. There's lots of great events coming up this fall, don't miss out!

Youth Rapier is practicing on Tuesday nights at the same time as adults. Practice is sometimes overwhelmed with youth and sometimes we have none. Loaner gear available!

Non-guild announcements

Steppes Music and Vocal non Guild

The Steppes Music Guild has two established working groups, the Instrumental Music group that meets on the first Sunday of the month at 2421 San Paula, Dallas 75228, starting at 2:00PM, and the Vocal Music Group that meets at 302 Sweetgum Dr., Cedar Hill, TX on the third Sunday of the month also at 2:00PM. Both exclude meetings on major holidays or the weekend of local events, and will change meeting locations to Populace in the Park or other activities when applicable. Since there's a minimum number of folks needed to have an effective music group, please contact the appropriate person if interested in attending. You don't have to be a highly trained singer or instrumentalist to join us, and we welcome all skill levels. For more information about the guild as a whole contact Herr Marcus at seafox@gypsyheir.com or Master Llywelyn at todd@twmarsh.net. For information about the specific groups, Herr Marcus is the contact for the instrumental group, while Master Llywelyn runs the vocal group. The instrumental group also tries to provide a musical presence at all Steppes events, so if you're unable to make the guild meetings but want to join in at an event contact either one of the folks referenced above to get the music sources used by the guild. And if you're interested in learning the courtly grace of music the guild has folks who can teach lessons.

Populace of the Steppes and Glaslyn!

I've got two months left as the Defender for Brewing, just four workshops left. As many of you know, Defender of the Flame is just around the corner (April 27th - 29th) at Sid Richardson's Scout Ranch. We will be having our Brewing Competition there, so bring your best brew and take my title. The Ladies of Glaslyn deserve a great brewer.

In the meantime, I'm still running workshops. Since we cannot start a mead now and have it ready for Defender, I'm going to focus on things that will be ready (though still green in the case of the wine). If you would like to compete in the Brewing competition at Defender and have not brewed before, we can get you making something.

3/11 - Muscato Wine
3/25 - Ale
4/08 - Lager
4/22 - Judging

March 11th, we're discussing white wines, and it will be essentially the same as the previous wine workshop as the processes are the same. But, the Princess of Ansteorra has requested a Muscato and we will provide it for her!

April 22nd is the big one. We are going to go through the Glaslyn Brewing Competition grading form, trying several "entries". You will get a chance to compare notes with others on Documentation and Tasting procedures.

I've got four workshops left, and I want to make sure our next Brewing Defender is amazing. After Defender of the Flame (Remember, that's April 27th through the 29th) I will be going down to one workshop a month.

All workshops begin at 4PM and are at my house 7613 Shoal Bend, Denton, TX 76210

Da'ud Bob Movie Review: Hamlet at Elsinore.

What first attracted my attention to this particular film was its statement that it was the first and so far, only time that this particular Shakespearean drama had been filmed on the actual site where most of the action was supposed to have taken place. (I found out later that this was not true; there had been a silent film version done there in 1910, but hardly anyone at all remembers it.) But it was first made for TV version to have been filmed on location instead of in studio. So, it caught my eye, because how cool would that be, to see a Shakespearean play performed on, at, and in the place where it is set? And you know that I just had to buy it (thank you, Amazon!), anxiously await its arrival, and then – finally! – drop it into the DVD player tray and hit “Play.” And so it is that this month, Da’ud Bob reviews for you 1964's BBC made for TV production of William Shakespeare's tragedy, entitled Hamlet at Elsinore.

Starring Christopher (“Captain Von Trapp”) Plummer in the title role as Hamlet, Robert (“Red Grant” in the 007 flick From Russia With Love) Shaw as Claudius, King of Denmark, Alec Clunes as Polonius, Michael Caine as Horatio, June Tobin as Gertrude, Queen of Denmark, Jo Maxwell Muller as Ophelia, Dyson Lovell as Laertes, Roy Kinnear (father of actor Rory Kinnear) as the Gravedigger, David Calderisi as Rosenkrantz, Bill Wallis Guildenstern, and Donald Sutherland as Fortinbras, Prince of Norway, you should already be pretty familiar with the plot of this tale of murder, intrigue, feigned madness, attempted murder, poisoning, and more murder, where pretty much all of the primary characters have died by the end of the film. Though I did recently read a story about a woman who, not knowing much about Shakespeare, having recently seen Hamlet, was asked what she thought about it. She replied that she didn't care much for it, as it seemed to mostly be a bunch of famous quotes loosely strung together. (Not understanding, of course, that these “quotes” were not at all famous until after Shakespeare wrote them down. Sometimes I just weep for the state of education today.)

Good points: The tapestries and paintings hung about the walls of the castle. Some of the Elizabethan clothing and armor. The ship's skiff. Elsinore as both stage and backdrop. The fencing choreography. It's a decent enough production, if occasionally a bit over-acted. Firing the old cannons (though not as old as Shakespearean times) outside the castle during the closing credits.

Bad points: Too many close-ups, making many parts of the movie feel like it's just talking heads. (I do try to remember that television screens were much smaller in 1964, and so less background clutter was sometimes better for the audience at home to see and understand what was happening on the screen.) The quality of the sound was probably okay for 1960s television; not so much nowadays. The camera movements are sometimes a bit shaky. (This was, however, eleven years before the invention of the Steadicam.) The transfer to digital has some issues (dark spots on the screen in places which are distracting). Hamlet asking Horatio and a guard to “Swear by my sword” while holding a dagger. Ophelia's free-flowing hair. Some of the costuming. And occasionally there is too much yelling in an attempt to add extra feeling to the lines.
