

Missive from our Excellencies

Greetings wonderful Barony,

The month has gone by so fast! Steppes Warlord 2018 has come and gone. It was a wonderful event thanks to all the many people that helped make it successful! Many people have commented on what an outstanding event it was. We hope you came and had a great time. It's hard to believe we are already planning for next year!

It was sad to say good bye to our first champions, but we are excited to have the many champions chosen at Warlord to stand by our side in 2018.

And speaking of great events- we have Steppes Artisan July 7th, Glaslyn Artisan coming in August and Braggarts War in September. These fun events can use your help. Please volunteer today.

Our Barony is blessed to have so many great new people, so we are excited to announce that we be starting our first newcomers' academy on Monday July 9th. This great program will be held the 2nd Monday of each month. Stay tuned for more details!

Have a great July!
See you soon,
Peter and Sarah

Words from our Seneschal

Greetings Mighty Oakwood,

Well this is my farewell notice. Lord William Swindell will be our new seneschal beginning with the July Steppes business meeting.

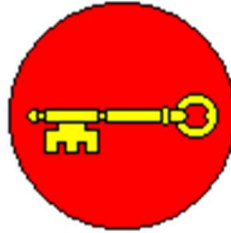

Being your seneschal has been a fun ride and full of interesting experiences. I know that I was not always patient with everyone, but you all were most patient with me and helped me grow as a person as we helped the barony grow into Ansteorra's best. I want to thank each and every one of you that has helped make this time easy for me. I won't name you by name since I don't want to write a whole book, or take a chance on missing someone.

We have seen the barony grow and all offices filled. We have seen Peers made, newcomers join, old-timers come back, and people move in from other places.

I am not leaving any time soon. I will still be helping out here and there. My door will always be open to help with events, A&S projects, or random advice.

In short, Thank you all.

We are a Mighty Oakwood,
We are Family,
We are a Barony,
WE ARE STEPPES!

Words from our Officers

Greetings Steppes!

June was a quiet month for the barony. Warlord post-event activities and paperwork have been completed and we're looking forward to Artisan. The Steppes account at the end of May contained $25,513.41.

We reviewed the Financial Policy at the business meeting in June. There are only minor changes planned for the document at this time, but if you have any comments please feel free to e-mail them to me before the July business meeting. We will be signing the document at the financial committee meeting in July.

We are still looking for another member of the populace to be on the Financial Committee. This is a fairly simple job and a good service to the Barony. If you are interested, please fill out the standard Ansteorran Officer Application and send it to me, the Seneschal, and our Baron and Baroness. The position is open to any populace member who is a paid member of the SCA.

As always, if you have any questions about the financial policy of the Steppes or the budget, please feel free to ask. I am still looking for a deputy for the Exchequer position; if you are interested please let me know.

Words from our Officers

Greetings Steppes,

We had newcomers borrowing garb weeks to hours in advance of the event. It was great to see all the new faces and help them experience our Barony's wonderful event. They were all over the place - Artisan Enclave, Chivalric combat, water bearing, wandering merchant's row, camping and hanging out (especially in the AC in the hall). Some even pitched in with set up and take down. To all who experienced Warlord for the first time: welcome to the family!! Stay tuned - even more great events and ways to help our newcomers get connected are in the near future

Greetings to The Steppes,

Tempus fugit! Just over two years ago I was writing this newsletter article for the first time and this will be my last. I'm humbled when I ponder how I followed a man who became our Baron and I will be replaced by – well – let's just say I'm humbled. You can expect great things from my successor in terms of growing our great Barony's rapier program. But allow me to reflect for a moment. When I was warranted into this position I was a bit nervous and unsure of what to do and how to do it, but like most things in the SCA, there are many who have been there/done that, and freely gave of themselves to help me find my way.

Those people not only helped me to get the job done, some of them have been instrumental in helping me to be a better fighter, a better teacher and, I think, more helpful to others as well. I'm leaving this position, but not going away as I have much more to learn, much more skill to acquire, and, I hope, much more to pass on to the next generation of rapier fighters.

Fighter practice continues to be at Heights Park in Richardson each Tuesday at 7:00 pm. See you there.

Hello Steppes fighters!

Well it's been another month, we've been having great turnouts at Fighter Practice. We had eleven heavy fighters turn out a couple of weeks ago. Remember though, with the heat upon us, hydrate, hydrate, hydrate. Come check out the combined fighter practice, Tuesday's at 7pm, at The Heights Park in Richardson

Again, a new issue of the newsletter is ready for your reading. If you have any stories that you wish to share about events, any other event, or you just want to share your knowledge, please send them my way!

As a friendly reminder, any new content for the newsletter must be submitted by our A&S meeting (2nd Thursday, 07/12) and any regular content by our business meeting (3rd Thursday, 07/19)

Words from our Officers

Greetings to the populace of the Steppes, Glaslyn, and associated lands.

This summer may mean that fighting slows down, but it does not mean that we heralds get a break. There are a lot of events going on that, if you are interested in heraldry, you should consider attending. First is Steppes Artisan, on July 7th. Why, because it's Steppes, and Steppes is awesome. Nuff' said.

July 9th is the first class of the Steppes Academie, which is geared toward newcomers, and I am sure will be expounded on elsewhere in the newsletter. I will be there answering questions about what heralds do, and why the office is the most critical office in the barony. ;)

Then, on July 13th, is Crown Tournament. Fine heraldic display is nowhere seen better than during the procession at Crown Tournament. In fact, there is a competition for heraldic procession happening. So come and watch the heralds strut their stuff.

The weekend after that, on July 20th, is Round Table. This is an administrative event, and heralds and scribes, among other officers, will have meetings throughout the day. It is a great way to learn how the kingdom functions.

On July 31st, I will be bringing heraldic consultation materials to the baronial fighter practice. I'll set up a table and discuss getting heraldic submissions done.

The first weekend of August, on the 4th, is the Ansteorran Heraldic and Scribal Symposium. Classes for all levels of interest and skill in the many different facets of heraldic activities in the SCA.

August 13th, I will be teaching at the Steppes Academie. Two classes: the first is on persona, and the different ways to find one that is right for you. The second one is on heraldry. I will try not to go too far into the weeds with the rules of heraldry. This is more of a discussion of how heraldry is used in the SCA, and how to start to find a heraldic device that suits you.

As far as heraldic submissions go, I have sent in 6 submissions this month. There was also a kingdom level decision meeting in which several items from the barony were discussed. At the time I am writing this letter, I have not heard any final disposition as to what is moving up, and what is being sent back for more work. I am doing my best to keep individual submitters updated as I get information.

If you've made it this far through my report, then you might be a herald. Seriously, if any aspect of heraldry interests you, let me know.

Words from our Officers

I can always use deputies to help me with all of the official stuff, and it's a great opportunity to learn. No experience is required, just enthusiasm.

That's all for now. I am eager to see how all of our local submissions progress and will report more next month.

Words from our Officers

Greeting Steppes,

On Saturday some of our youngest wilted even before we met on the field (that or, more likely, they were so engaged at the children's activities inside (put on by our rocking new MOC) that they didn't even think about donning armor in the heat outside). A few of our heartier fighters braved the heat and took to the field (which we quickly moved under the youth pavilion for the shade). In the end there can be only one (in each category).

Congratulations to our newest Jr Warlord: Philip Redgson of Bjornsborg, and our Division II winner, Steppes own, Bearach Duskinson).

On Sunday, to proactively prevent the wilting of our Roses and youth rapier fighters, we moved the youth tournament inside - which was quickly followed by the adult tournaments also moving inside. I think we had better participation all around. Vivat the decision-makers! we had a good turnout in all three divisions. The Roses were gracious with their presence and praise. With their feedback, next Warlord promises to be even better.

Congratulations to Connor Dupre for winning the Youth Rapier Division (I heard his father also fought well in the adult tournament). Congratulations to Aiden Brendanson for winning the Light Steel Division, and Congratulations to Marie of the Steppes for winning the plastic division (I heard she was also recognized for a couple of other really great awards)

Greetings, Glaslyn!

By all accounts we had a good showing at the A-Kon demos in early June, thank you to Lord Cecil and Lord Hákon for participating and to Lady Delfina for providing space! The kingdom may be slowing down a bit to focus on A&S during these hot months, but we'll continue to have fighter practices as long as the weather is cooperative. Hope to see y'all out there!

Greetings unto The Steppes!

It has been my privilege to work with and serve the Barony of The Steppes for many years.

Coming out to the practices on Tuesdays I see a camaraderie filled with warmth and I am honored to be there amongst such amazing people.

People of the Steppes, you are wonderful and inspirational. As all of you continue to brave the Ansteorran Summer's heat and share each other's company, you inspire me to do so as well.

We are each of us the ambassadors of The Dream in all we say and do and The Steppes assures that The Dream shall endure.

Words from our Non-Guilds

Call to all brewers!

Barony of the Steppes!

The Brewing competition at Defender of the Flame went fantastically, we had several competitors and it was very close. I'd like to thank all competitors, as well as my judges. It was a pleasure to run, a pleasure to taste everyone's brew, and a very difficult competition.

Warlord is coming up, and SLAB generally has an unofficial brewing competition so bring your brew and documentation.

May 20th, I'll be hosting another workshop. I don't yet know what I'll be making, that is up to the Ladies of Glaslyn. Ladies, message me with your requests and/or decision!

King's College is coming up in June, and I'll be teaching a class on Mead making there, as well as hosting a discussion on how we as brewers can compete at dry locations.

June 17th I'll be hosting a workshop. I'm thinking it's time to do another red wine. But I'll make my decision later, I'm still coming down from my Defender High.

Thank you all!

Guðbrandr Njalsson

Steppes Music and Vocal non-Guild

The Steppes Music Guild has two established working groups, the Instrumental Music group that meets on the first Sunday of the month at 2421 San Paula, Dallas 75228, starting at 2:00PM, and the Vocal Music Group that meets at 302 Sweetgum Dr., Cedar Hill, TX on the third Sunday of the month also at 2:00PM. Both exclude meetings on major holidays or the weekend of local events and will change meeting locations to Populace in the Park or other activities when applicable. Since there's a minimum number of folks needed to have an effective music group, please contact the appropriate person if interested in attending. You don't have to be a highly trained singer or instrumentalist to join us, and we welcome all skill levels. For more information about the guild as a whole contact Herr Marcus at seafox@gypsyheir.com or Master Llywelyn at todd@twmarsh.net. For information about the specific groups, Herr Marcus is the contact for the instrumental group, while Master Llywelyn runs the vocal group. The instrumental group also tries to provide a musical presence at all Steppes events, so if you're unable to make the guild meetings but want to join in at an event contact either one of the folks referenced above to get the music sources used by the guild. And if you're interested in learning the courtly grace of music the guild has folks who can teach lessons.

Da'ud Bob Movie Review: The Tempest

It's always fun for me when Shakespeare and history meet, and it's even better when a number of the names in the cast are familiar to me. And when a piece of the history involves a member of my own family, well, that's pretty much the trifecta and you know that I'm really, really going to enjoy watching it. In this particular instance, the play was Shakespeare's last. The history was a shipwreck in the Bermudas that occurred in 1609, an account of which was written up by Sir Thomas Gates, the newly-appointed governor of the Jamestown, Virginia colony, Sir George Sommers, and Captain Newport, all part of the expedition which had been stranded, and published in 1610 under the title A Discovery of the Barmudas [Bermudas], Otherwise Called the Ile of Divels [Isle of Devils]. It is widely believed that Shakespeare based his final play on the account of the storm and shipwreck from that book. And finally, one of the characters in the play is thought to have been based on one of the men in that expedition, Stephen Hopkins, who later sailed with his family on the Mayflower, and who also happens to be my 11th great-grandfather. (No, really! I have the research to prove it.) And who plays the role of Stephano in this version of the play? Nigel Hawthorne, who did such a good turn as Malvolio in the 1996 Twelfth Night (another Shakespeare play involving a shipwreck), as King George III in The Madness of King George, as Sir Humphrey Appleby in the BBC TV series Yes, Prime Minister, as George, Duke of Clarence, in the Ian McKellen Richard III, and in roles in a couple of other movies I have seen and liked a lot, Gandhi and Firefox, among others. So with all that going for it, this month Da'ud Bob reviews for you BBC's 1980 version of William Shakespeare's final play, The Tempest.

Starring Michael Hordern in a change of pace for him as Prospero, David Waller as Alonso, Derek Godfrey as Antonio, Warren Clarke as Caliban, Nigel Hawthorne as Stephano, David Dixon as Ariel, Andrew Sachs as Trinculo, John Nettleton as Gonzalo, Alan Rowe as Sebastian, Pippa Guard as Miranda, Christopher Guard as Ferdinand, and Paul Greenhalgh as Francisco, the basic plot is that a wizard and former Duke of Milan, Prospero, was overthrown by his brother and cast adrift with his books and daughter. They came safely to shore, and now, years later, he has achieved control over a number of spirits (and Caliban) to rule the island. When his brother, with others, sails near his island, he calls up a massive storm which casts them upon his shores, without loss of either life or ship. In the end he frees the spirits who work for him, abjures the further use of magic, and returns home, where his only heir, daughter Miranda, will marry Ferdinand, the heir of the King of Naples, and they will rule over both cities in peace. Or, more succinctly, "Exiled Prospero lives on a desolate island with his daughter, Miranda. When Prospero's usurping brother sails by the island, Prospero conjures a storm that wrecks the ship and changes all of their lives."

Good points: Well, it's Shakespeare! The shields on the rail of the ship's stern castle.

Bad points: The sound is often a bit "scratchy." (Then again, it was made for TV in 1980, and not for surround sound in Hi-Definition!) Why is Ariel golden? All over?

Zero breasts. No blood. No dead bodies. Storm fu. Sword fu. Magic staff fu. The ship rolls. Spirits roll. Plots and sub-plots roll. Ariel disappears. A lot. On screen. (1980-level special effects.) Gratuitous G-strings. (Ariel and the other spirits.) Gratuitous hair. (Caliban. All over.) Gratuitous songs. It's nice to see Michael Hordern playing something other than "befuddled characters, particularly stuffy public officials." (For an example of the former, see his wonderful interpretation of Baptista in the Elizabeth Taylor-Richard Burton The Taming of the Shrew.) A mere 28 on the Vomit Meter. Two stars. Da'ud Bob says, "Check it out!"
