Greetings Good Gentles All,

We just wrapped up a wonderful Warlord Memorial Day Weekend! Many thanks to Gilli and Signy for their work as autocrats and to their team which put on a spectacular event! Folks have to be as thrilled and energized as we are because everyone wanted to hold practice right after Warlord and we had over 40 people show up to art and to fight.

Many of our fighters advanced far into the tournaments. Our own Sven Randullsson won the Warlord tournament. Decimus (the Scaevus one) won the AoA level chivalric tournament. Matthias won the AoA level rapier tournament. Hotaru won the torchlight tourney. Steppes and Glaslyn really showed their might over the weekend. We were talking to the other Decimus and he wisely said that, "the sword sharpens the sword." That really showed with all of our fighters at Warlord.

In addition, Rayya won the brewing competition to be our next champion!

We would like to thank His Highness of Vindheim for coming down and joining in the fun! We would also like to thank His Majesty for coming to support our 50th Warlord.

Looking forward, we have two events coming up: Steppes Artisan and Glaslyn Artisan. They bookend a month so we have declared it to be Artisan August. Look for the art focused classes that we will have throughout the month.

After that we have 12th Night which will host another Murder Mystery as well as some new fun competitions.

You do not want to miss any of the upcoming events.

It was a magnificent weekend to be Steppes/Glaslyn. The group is growing tremendously in numbers and growing in skill. We could not be more proud to belong to such an amazing populace!

Steppes Strong,

Baudoyne and Katerine
Baron and Baroness of the Steppes
Lord and Lady of Glaslyn.

Word from the Baronial Officers

Seneschal

Antigone of York
seneschal@steppes.ansteorra.org

Family, Friends and Steppets of the Steppes,

This month had so many exciting events. Our Barony celebrated its 50th Steppes Warlord event where many of our populace were recognized in court, our weekly mini-events (aka fight practice) continues to grow and prosper, and our Seneschal office has changed hands.

Lord Gilli and Lady Signy have worked tirelessly to coordinate a spectacular event for over 400 of our family, friends and visitors. Through their leadership we were able to have an activity for anyone and everyone to enjoy. Their team of volunteers and those who pitched in at the last minute to make everything run smoothly are so greatly appreciated. It's teamwork like this that makes our Barony and my job so fantastic!

Our fighter practice has grown from its humble beginnings two years ago to something truly extraordinary. The barony's practice renown is known across the country because of each of you. It's amazing seeing long time members return, our regulars on a weekly basis and of course our new visitors! A kind reminder to make sure that before you depart from practice that you clean up all of your belongings, put your chairs/tables up, and take your trash with you. We are so grateful to have the gym and rooms so let's show our appreciation for it!

Lastly I'd like to thank Baroness Elspeth for her guiding hand as the Baronial Seneschal for her tenure. She contributed countless hours and expertise to the barony and its people. Having such an experienced and knowledgeable Seneschal such as the Baroness has shown through the growth and prosperity of our group.

I am excited to step (hah) in and serve all of you as your Seneschal. If you have any questions, concerns, or just want to chat in general I will have office hours from 7PM-9PM on Mondays via facebook messenger, video chat, or phone call. Please note that I do participate in fighting at fighter practice so I will be unable to be available until after fighting has concluded for any in person discussions.

In service,

Duchess Antigone of York

Archery Marshal

Eadgyth Beornesdohtor
archery@steppes.ansteorra.org

Unto the populace of the Barony of the Steppes, your Archery Marshal sends greetings.

We had 62 archers competing in four different events at Warlord — what a wonderful turnout! I am proud to announce that Lord Kenneric ap Griffith emerged victorious as the new Steppes Archery Champion, and HE Wentiliana le Chandelier triumphed in the HL William Ironwurm Memorial William Tell Shoot.

Warlord had two full days of archery awesomeness:

- ❖ Combat archery during the chiv melees, in which archers from Steppes and Shadowlands slew many foemen;
- ❖ an incredibly entertaining fun shoot featuring horses, charging bulls, and archery duels;
- ❖ the HL Will Ironwurm Memorial William Tell Shoot, where archers vied to shoot an apple off the head of Screamin' Willie;
- ❖ and the Steppes 50th Anniversary Golden Quest Archery Championship, where archers not only breached a castle, but they slew an evil wizard, rescued fallen heroes, and saved the Barony from impending doom (and all that before lunch!)

I want to thank all the marshals who assisted in the ranges this weekend, and who helped make archery so much fun for all the participants: HE Katya, HE Aiden, HE Wentiliana, HE Gavin, HL Sean, Lord Josef, Lord Kenneric, Lord Michael, Lord Montgomery, as well as the wonderful gentles who helped me set up the range: Lord Thorbjorn, Lady Ann, Lady Roana, and Lord Æthelwulf. I couldn't have asked for a finer team!

Finally, congratulations to my deputy, HL Sean Tabor, Steppes' newest warranted Target Archery Marshal!

Don't miss out on the fun! Come out and join us 1st and 3rd Sundays on the range, and hang out with us afterwards for coffee, tea, or hot chocolate at the Bear Cave!

Yours in joyous service,

Lady Eadgyth Beornesdohtor

Rapier Marshal

Mathias Grunwalt
rapier@steppes.ansteorra.org

This month our attendance remains high for fighter practices. Newcomers from HEMA and non-classical fencing backgrounds continue to come check us out and attend. No injuries have occurred at our practices with the reduced armor experiment being permitted.

The Steppes 50th Warlord rapier events went well. I was the Marshal in Charge with Sean Tabor as my deputy. Only one instance of a fighter having to exit the field temporarily after a hard hit occurred. We had a dropdown tournament with a different finalist claiming victory for each tier as well as a black blade tournament. Master Robin also held the very first rapier spear tournament which was a fun event for all who participated and observed. We hope to see more of it in the future.

At Steppes Warlord, the gracious Captan Rhys donated a new marshaling stick and several sets of large loaner gear for rapier. With our regular newcomer attendance this donation will prove most helpful and is greatly appreciated.

Lord Mathias Grunwalt

Chivalric Marshal

Centurion Magnus Creppinson
marshal@steppes.ansteorra.org

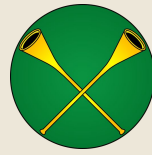

What a wonderful month! Not only do we get to celebrate the start of summer but we get to celebrate a very successful Warlord. Many of the new faces that frequent practice could be seen both on the melee field and tournament list field. Having a tremendous turnout against many traveling warriors, the fighters of the Steppes fought off the invasion and defended The Barony in melee scenarios. In addition to showing cunning and skill on the tournament field. The roots of the Steppes warriors grow deeper and the branches stretch further and further out.

In addition we will be having our Fan Expo demo soon. Keep an eye on that for more fighting and fun opportunities.

Lastly Tuesday fighter practices remain some of the best around. With many more joining, newbies upgrading to authorized fighters, and the frequent appearance of higher levels fighters, Steppes is the place to be for a heavy fighter trying to forge their story in the history of Ansteorra. Looking forward to seeing everyone for a fight, spar, or training.

Herald

Elionora inghean Ui Cheallaigh

Unto the populace of Steppes and Glaslyn,

Greetings and I hope Warlord went well for everyone involved. It was a delightful event full of competition and camaraderie, and I can't thank those who stepped up for the many volunteer needs enough. A special thank you to returning court heralds Master Robin of Gilwell and Duke Abd al-Mahdi Jamal ibn Hakim, and to Lord Roland of Ffynon Gath who assisted Master Robin during Saturday evening court.

We have a little time before our next heraldic needs. Both Glaslyn and Steppes Artisan will need court and site heralds in August. If you're interested in voice heraldry for those events please let me know.

But before that! July is absolutely full of heraldic classes and events - we have King's College (July 8) and a Heraldic Retreat (July 29) being hosted in Vindheim - both only about a three hour drive north, so please consider visiting. Round Table (July 15) is typically held online and provides a herald warranting track, so if you've ever wanted to be a herald, this is how you do it.

I should be all caught up on any emailed missives at this time. Please contact me if there is an outstanding matter I haven't responded to yet, or if you have any questions about the submissions process.

Greetings Steppes,

Wow, Warlord has come and gone and with it some very exciting happenings for our great Barony.

We have some new Arts Champions to announce! Our new Steppes Brewing champion is Rayya al-Ruquay'a. Our New Bard of the Steppes is Cassian Jaskólski.

And the winning team for the 2nd Food Joust is Team Gastronomists! (Robert Cuthbert, Fionn O'Dubain, Brandi Pratt, Bianca di Antoneli, Robyn Shelton, Ceara inghean mhic an Ghabhann, Chris Bush, Cristiane Milton, Monie Young, & Marina di Antoneli.)

I would like to take the time to thank the following for dedicating their time to teaching classes at Warlord to help make this such a special event: Meistari Haraldr Bassi, Gwenfrewi fetch Llewellyn, Catriona of Castle Doune, Katalina Ana de Salamanca, Caitlin inghean Romain hi Cheallaigh, Elina Ulfsdottir, Brigioa Jonsdottor, Jessimond of Emerickeskepe, Mheiri Hamelin, Rayya al-Ruquay'a

THL Torquil Mac Seamus and I would like to take this time to thank everyone who volunteered to help with the snow cone fund raiser, you know who you are... too many names to mention at this time, and to thank everyone who purchased snow cones. Special thanks to Captain Rhys for the donation of the Skenjiban, and to Sly Symmank for the donation of syrups. We hope everyone enjoyed not only the snow cones, but the snowball fight that ensued once the fighters knew we had ice available. We raised a total of $400 after expenses which will be dedicated to the cost of our space which is used for fighter practice, A&S, Music practice and Populace meetings. Thank you Mheiri Hamelin for your generous donation to the fund.

Plans are afoot to do this again at Steppes Artisan in August, and we would like to have the funds go to either sorely need arts supplies (which exceed our annual budget) and/or depending on how much is raised the cost of the archery range rental.

Hello everyone! We have a project in the works that I hope you will look forward to. Our baronial historian, Lord Thomas of Eynsham, has provided copies of The Steppes Letter dating back as far as A.S. XVI, and with the help of Glaslyn's Hospitaler Lady Alhdryð ceorlstrang (who has mundane expertise in digital archives) we are making digital scans of as many back issues as we can find with plans to host them on our website. I hope this will preserve at least a token of our Barony's past to being lost to the whims of time and make it accessible to all of you!

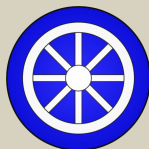

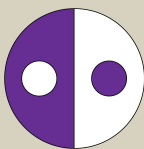

As always, make sure you keep an eye on the front page of the website for any announcements, and sync to our calendar using the button on the Calendar of Events page.

If you see an event that needs updating, have something that needs adding to the calendar, or if you find any other errors or issues with our website, feel free to let me know at webminister@steppes.ansteorra.org!

Greeting to Steppes and surroundings!

I love every picture of Warlord that I've seen so far! If I could put all of them into the newsletter, I would! Unfortunately I would need so many waivers that it just isn't feasible, so I'll rely on all of you to spread the wonders of vents on social media. Please remember when you share others' work to attribute the photographer and tag/name the subjects as a courtesy.

This month's letter is slim as everyone rests from Warlord. For next month, please consider submitting your artwork, poetry, music, stories, classes, research, photos, or other shenanigans to be included! I enjoy all sorts of shenaniganery.

I would like to thank everyone who put in such great effort to ensure that the backlog of Baronial Charters was completed and that we had Charters for new awards being given.

Coming up, we will be working on some Charters for Kingdom.

We are also looking for some new designs to add to our charter library for the Barony. This will give us a variety to choose from, and also hopefully some with designs that are slightly easier for beginners . Please see Lady Eagdyth for dimensions for the design.

Steppes Bowyer & Fletchers Guild

The Steppes Bowyer and Fletchers Guild is the oldest archery guild within Ansteorra that we know of surviving even the later established now defunct kingdom's archery guild. The Guild exists to share knowledge between members and instruct others how to accomplish all the projects, skills, and items required to round out personal kits for our SCA archery community. We have recently included thrown weapons and siege weapons to our instructional activities since the kingdom has combined all airborne missile activities together.

Guild meetings are a bit sporadic at the moment but ideally we will meet on the last Friday of the month at a guild members' home. If you want to know when the next meeting is, please contact the Steppes archery marshal.

Greetings Steppes!

Thank you for hosting another Warlord to remember! Huzzah for another 50 years of the Barony! It's always fun to join our Steppes brothers and sisters for the Kingdom's oldest event, and in that spirit, we hope you will join us as we host the Summer Crown Tournament in two weeks' time at Sid Richardson Scout Ranch in Ruanway Bay. A one-day event on Saturday, June 10th, a sideboard is included with site fee, and an unbelted tourney will follow the selection of Ansteorra's newest heirs! Coming Soon: Artisan August!

As you are probably aware, Steppes Artisan is coming up on August 5th, and Glaslyn Artisan of the Flame on August 26th.

Since we have two amazing A&S events bracketing both ends of the month, Our Baron and Baroness have declared August to be “ Artisan August” with classes to be held all month (and possibly some mini arts competitions or challenges as well).

So far we have the following (no dates set in stone as yet)

- ❖ Ocarina : Jessi Rumsey
- ❖ Viking Wire Weaving: Arianna Michaud
- ❖ Baggy Pants/Middle Eastern Sirwal : Wren Birdie (Rayya)
- ❖ Herbs and their uses: Suzanne the Herbalist
- ❖ Historical Wire Rings: Suzanne the Herbalist
- ❖ Rus Baggy pants: Margery Heron
- ❖ Basic embroidery : Arianna Michaud
- ❖ Towel Chitons: Hadassah Sarai bas Yossi
- ❖ Color Theory and Shading basics: Hadassah Sarai bas Yossi
- ❖ Identifying foods by Taste and Smell: HL Hadassah Sarai bas Yossi and HL Torquil mac Seamus (Yes, this is what it sounds like, a blind tasting... people will wear blindfolds)
- ❖ Open Forge, blacksmithing Basics : Wilhelm (Rhett Bruck)
- ❖ Beginning Wheel Thrown Pottery: Torquil mac Seamus

What a great start!

I'm thinking for the sewing projects, we can set up to do the patterning and cutting out in separate time blocks and sewing throughout the day, but do a whole day dedicated to those.

We also have requests for basic card weaving, tatting, and pillow lace, silk banner painting, leather working, spinning, and bookbinding, if anyone has those skills?

Any more suggestions?

Da'ud Bob Movie Review

Seven Souls in the Skull Castle: Season Bird \(2021\)

I'm feeling a little like a line from the old 1960s Herman's Hermit song Henry VIII, that goes, "Second verse same as the first!", to which we would often add, "A little bit louder and a little bit worse." That's not exactly the case here, but still, a lot of this review is very reminiscent of last month's review, and with good reason. Two months ago, I'd promised you in my review of Seven Souls in the Skull Castle that I would try to look at and review some of the other productions of this very same stage play, and last month, I did so with Seven Souls in Skull Castle: Season Flower. Well, this month, I've done the next one in the series, and while I may spend a fair bit of time on its differences from the previous one, it is, after all, the same play, done on the same 360° rotating stage, with at least some of the same sets (if not all of them), but performed on a different day with a different cast and different costumes. So, was it better or worse? Stay tuned, as this month Da'ud Bob reviews for you the July 31, 2017 production of Seven Souls in the Skull Castle: Season Bird.

Once again, finding information in English on the cast is difficult; the best IMDb can tell me is that it stars Yasuko Matsuyuki, Mirai Moriyama, and Taichi Saotome, without any other cast members or even so much as giving the roles these three actors played. Some more looking about the intertubes gave me several other actors' names: Sadawo Abe, Macoto Awane, Tenkyu Fukuda, Yusuke Shoji, Hazuki Shimizu, Zen Kajihara, and Narushi Ikeda, but still without which roles they played. Well, it's better than nothing, I guess, but I do prefer to be able to give proper credit to actors filling particular roles. Anyway, the plot is exactly the same as in all the other productions of this play; the differences are in the actors, sets, costumes, the treatment of the action, and so on. For example, in Season Bird, there is comic relief, and more singing and dancing than there was in Season Flower. Enough that I was tempted to rename it: Seven Souls, the Musical. But I didn't, and the singing and dancing certainly did not overwhelm the storyline.

Good points: Once again, the 360° stage. Tayu's kimono. The fight choreography. Tenmao's demon mask. The actor playing Ranbei in this version is very pretty to look at. The dance choreography. Once again, real water "river" on the stage. And, also again, the use of the real Tokugawa mon. The skull throne of Tenmao.

Bad points: The red leather armor and helmets of the Kanto Skull Corps. (They reminded Anna Sue of nothing quite so much as the playing card soldiers of the Red Queen in Disney's Alice in Wonderland.) There's still an awful lot of yelling going on. The invincible armor with an Achilles heel. (Well, okay, Achilles sole.) Sometimes some of the comic relief was a bit adolescent. The swordsmith was pretty much a caricature, which was often distracting from the seriousness of the story.

Zero breasts. 1½ gallons of blood. As before, 34 dead bodies. Bomb in a rice ball fu. Axe fu. Katana fu. Spear fu. Musket fu. Fisticuffs. Shovel fu. Pistol fu. Sledge hammer fu. Flute fu. Lightning fu. Scythe fu. Guitar fu. Handheld Gatling gun fu. Abacus fu. "Whirlwind rice sickles" fu. Sagiri rolls. Kanto Skull Corps members roll. Waves roll. Gratuitous mustache. Gratuitous bird beak disguise. Gratuitous exploding needles. Gratuitous "Shazam" lightning flash. A 45 on the Vomit Meter. Again, 3½ stars. Da'ud Bob says, "Is it better than Season Flower? It's hard to say. It's the same story, but with different emphases, more singing and dancing, and more comic relief. So it has its own strengths. Is it better? No, not really; it's just different. Check it out!"
