 - Open Offices: Thrown Weapons, Rapier Marshall, Webminister, Hospitaler, applications due today (6/1)! Announcements will be soon. MOC office is also open.
 - We are making some changes to our social media presence to better follow the society's social media policy and help with recruitment and announcements. Please see the June Plume for more information!
 - We will be adding a Facebook page that will be public and used by the admins for announcements, meeting and practice times, etc.
 - We will keep our current Facebook group, but will change it to a closed group so only members can see the conversations. This will be for general SCA related conversations, etc.
 - The admins will approve new member requests (which is what already happens).
 - I have contacted the Kingdom server admin to get our email list management/administrators changed to the Webminister and the Seneschal to hopefully expedite new list addition requests, etc.
 - We had some members meet with the OKC Ren Fair that is being advertised for this fall. Due to some of the financial requirements and organizational concerns, the barony will not be participating in this as an official demo. If you attend you are welcome to hand out cards – see the Hospitaler if you need any! We will reevaluate this as a demo opportunity in future years.
 - Oak Springs
 - Oak Springs is looking into doing a Brewing and Bardic event at Lake Longmire in Paul's Valley this October. The site allows camping and has showers, small grilles, picnic tables, and a lit covered area that can be reserved/rented. Be on the lookout for more information!
