December Anno Societatis

LII

Greetings Namron, from your Beltane autocrats! Here is our list of activities we need YOU to help us with! If you would like to volunteer, please comment on this post or contact Rebekah Valencia or Kayleigh Metz.

You may notice a Star Wars theme to some of the tasks. It turns out Beltane begins on May the Fourth, so we want to nod to Star Wars while keeping the theme of the event as medieval as possible. Send your ideas to us and sign up to help!

HERALD

This is a brief selection of the Herald's responsibilities outlined in the handbook. Please review the handbook for a full list of responsibilities and requirements.

Job Description and Duties

7. The local herald or a designated deputy is responsible for the following duties in addition to those specified for all officers:
- A. Ceremonial Duties — Local heralds shall be generally responsible for the conduct of ceremonies as decreed by kingdom law and custom. These activities may include acting as the herald for Royalty or Nobility at court or calling the pairings at a tournament.
 - B. Educational Duties — The Local Herald shall ensure that heraldic education happens in the branch. The activities should include a range of general heraldic education designed to broaden awareness of heraldry among the populace.
 - C. Miscellaneous Duties — Local heralds shall be responsible for performing any miscellaneous duties required for the furtherance of heraldry within the branch.
 - D. Warranting — The local herald must have taken and successfully completed the warranting class within the past 2 years to be warranted. Until the class has been completed he/she will be listed as acting. The office will be declared vacant if the herald has not attended the warranting class after 3 months from taking office.
 - E. Submissions – The local herald is responsible for taking and processing heraldic submissions paperwork in a timely manner. Failure to properly handle submissions paperwork is grounds for removal from office.
 - F. Submissions Follow-up – A Local Herald should take note of the submissions from their group, and ensure any necessary follow-up on returns at kingdom or Laurel has been taken by working with either the consulting herald or directly with the submitter.

All other heralds attending court are requested to report awards and honors given, but not required. Local branch heralds and other subdeputies report quarterly, with reports due by the 15th of the month following the end of the previous quarter. Reports are submitted to the up-line officer.
