May Anno Societatis

LIII

Greetings from your friendly neighborhood Hospitaler!

So many people came out to support our Newcomers Event, making it a rousing success. We had 106 guests sign in at gate, but many more were in attendance, arriving later in the evening, or forgetting to sign in (me! oops). Our best estimate is that we hosted around 50 newcomers, and that is AMAZING!

Participants had the opportunity to try Chivalric and Rapier combat, Archery, Thrown Weapons, and to watch a ballista and trebuchet demonstration. Loaner garb was available and used by many, and we have already had requests by newcomers for books from our lending library!

Our Arts and Sciences were well represented with displays and hands on activities including the scribal arts, costuming, jewelry-making, and brewing. The feast crew was fantastic, adapting to late arrivals, and a larger crowd than expected. With toasts and performances between removes, our newcomers experienced something special!

Court was very relaxed, with lots of information about upcoming and regular activities. Their Excellencies, Wiesenfeuer, were also in attendance, and newcomers from both baronies were presented with a token. One of the highlights of court was the recognition of newcomers who coordinated specific activities during the event. It was exciting to see how many new people, and first-timers, jumped in and lent assistance with everything from archery to hauling hay bales throughout the day!

The evening concluded with a bardic Circle, covering many of our Kingdom's and Society's favorite songs. Many who attended have expressed their excitement about joining the SCA and their plans to attend Beltane next weekend. If you see an unfamiliar face at an upcoming activity, be sure to say hello and welcome them!

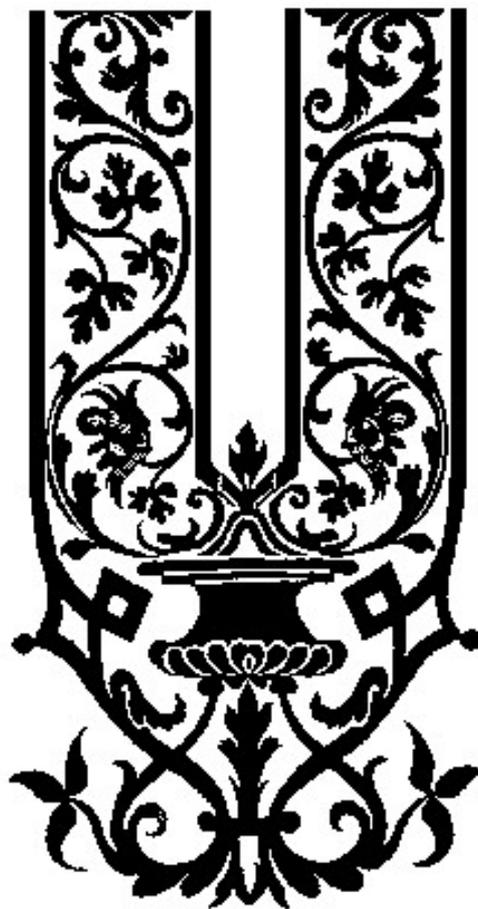

In Service to the Dream,
Frú Kolfinna Egilsdóttir
Hospitaler, Barony of Namron

The Barony of Namron has been pleased to offer Senior Pages activities for our youth, ages 12-17, for the past two years. Alas, my time as a warranted Minister of Children is nearing its conclusion, and I will not be renewing as I have taken on some additional responsibilities since starting Senior Pages.

I deeply hope that we can continue offering services targeted to our teenaged members. It has been incredibly fun and rewarding to work with them, and I encourage you to find out just how great they are!

Please contact me for more information, and I will gladly share what we have done, what the requirements are, and help you get started coordinating activities.

Yours in Service,
Frú Kolfinna Egilsdóttir

Your friendly neighborhood Hospitaler here, to remind you of our upcoming demo at McCall's Chapel School in Ada. This is a great opportunity to give back to the community and provide entertainment for a great group of people!

Please add this to your calendar if you're not attending Queen's Champion. I know we're all very busy in the Spring, but a good turnout for this demo is important. Both heavy and light fighters are strongly encouraged to join us!

If you'll be demonstrating Arts and Sciences, and/or providing hands-on activities, please let me know so we can ensure an adequate supply of tables. Bards, we would love to have instrumental music or songs! Drummers, if you have extra drums to let participants play, those would be welcome, too.

This is an outdoor demo, and in the event of adverse travel or performance conditions, we will cancel, so be sure to check for updates. Plan to arrive by 9:30 am for setup. We will have access to restrooms.

Please make note that there is ABSOLUTELY NO SMOKING on their grounds once you pass the cattle guard, not even in your vehicle, so you will need to walk or drive beyond the entrance. Please respect our host's wishes and policies in this regard.

In Service,
Frú Kolfinna Egilsdóttir
