CHRONICLER@NAMRON.ANSTEORRA.ORG

Unto the Stellar Barony of Namron do We send our warm greetings!

We don't know when the recovery from this pestilence will happen or what it will look like, but we know that it will happen. We know everyone is excited to get back to practices, events, and hanging out with our friends. We are working closely with our Seneschal to get started back when we safely can. We will keep everyone posted as those decisions are made going forward.

In the meantime, you never cease to amaze us!

Despite the difficulty of present circumstances, you all do a wonderful job of finding new ways to connect with each other and keep the dream that is the SCA alive. The list of ways you have continued to play in the SCA include online get-togethers, scribal and illumination projects, sewing heraldic face coverings, random acts of kindness, garb sewing, online class taking and teaching, putting together a virtual event, and sharing your thoughts, feelings and memes on Facebook. Please keep at it! Please stay involved in our community and keep Namron strong!

In service to the Barony,

Micolay and Uliana

BARON AND BARONESS OF NAMRON

From the Seneschal

*Greetings to the Populace of Namron, the Canton of Skorragardr, and the Baronial
Outpost of Oak Spring!*

First the bad news: All SCA events and activities are still on hold until further notice. I will continue to provide information as it becomes available, but in the meantime, please take advantage of the numerous virtual opportunities.

REMINDER: No SCA equipment may be used for "unofficial" purposes. That means that even if local governments relax gathering restrictions before we do, you may not use SCA-owned equipment, and you will not have insurance coverage for accidents.

Now, the good news!

Our Virtual Beltane will be held on Facebook, May 2, and our Event Steward has a FULL day of exciting activities and competitions planned, including a virtual tournament!

The May Populace and Business Meetings will be conducted using Zoom. Please join us for both! The Business Meeting will be an open discussion of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Please bring your great ideas on how we can continue building an environment that is welcoming and accessible for everyone!

We are pleased to welcome our new Treasurer, Baroness Annabelle Fitzsimmons!

The Barony of Namron Financial Committee now has a dedicated email address for questions and expense requests: finance@namron.ansteorra.org. Emails sent to this address will be viewable by all members of the Financial Committee.

We are currently accepting Protectorate bids through May 7, 2020, 9:00 p.m. CST.

We are currently accepting applications for Social Media Deputy through May 7, 2020, 9:00 p.m. CST.

We are currently accepting applications for Youth Rapier Marshal through June 4, 2020, 9:00 p.m. CST.

We are currently accepting applications for Hospitaler through June 4, 2020, 9:00 p.m. CST.

The Webminister is seeking a Deputy. Familiarity with WordPress and basic HTML is desirable.

SENECHAL, BARONY OF NAMRON

405-561-1153

SENECHAL@NAMRON.ANSTEORRA.ORG

For those who do not know, May 1st rings in the SCA New Year. It was 54 years ago that a medieval themed backyard party to celebrate May Day dawned the internationally loved Society for Creative Anachronism.

To help us celebrate this event, here are some musing from Baroness Ayesha de Warwick on her time within the Society.

- I have been in the SCA so long it was only a single digit year when I started. Because we use Roman numerals, though, it wasn't.
- I have been in the SCA so long that my first membership card was before numbers... And it was hand written in calligraphy... And I still have it.
- My sisters were teenagers when they first started playing when they went to college at Michigan State (which is the Barony of North Woods).
- My sister once talked my father into driving to Pennsic and camping... He was in Montana at the time.
- My grandchildren and my brother's grandchildren are 4th generation SCA.
- My great-niece first went to Pennsic when she was five. Her mother had told her she would meet queens and kings, so she went around asking everyone with a Coronet if they were a queen. Some were. She told us she was going to be entering kindergarten and she was going to tell everyone she had met The Queen of Texas, but she knew no one would believe her. So smart.

There are stories that we do not want to lose from those who have been playing for several years. Think of the things that they've seen, done, and heard. Think towards the future when you're children are bringing their children to events and the things you can tell them (remember in year 54 when we were all stuck in our homes and couldn't get together at all and had to hang out virtually?)

My Challenge to YOU: keep a journal for this year of the things you did within the SCA. I would love to hear about them next New Year!

*Chronicler's Note: Remember, when you see David, Remington, and Oswin, that they're 4TH GENERATION SCA MEMBERS!!! How amazing is that?!

From the Minister of Children

Greetings to the Amazing Populace of Namron!

I hope all are doing well and finding ways to busy yourselves. May Day is upon us. Now time to celebrate. Mayday is a wonderful springtime celebration that takes place on May 1st. This special day has its roots in ancient history. A very long time ago the ancient Greeks celebrated the Festival of Chloris and the Romans celebrated Floralia. Both of these festivals were in honour of the goddess of flowers. Over time these springtime festivals have evolved into the May Day celebrations that take place around the world today.

There are many ways to celebrate. Some activities you can do at home are; make your own mini maypole, make a flower crown, or a number of flower crafts. (I could list so many). Don't forget things that take place outside and in nature. It is always a great idea to get out for some fresh air and sunshine. Go for a nature hike, pick some wildflower. Don't want to pick the flowers? Take a blanket, a drawing pad or paper, pencil, and try drawing the flowers and whatever else interests you. Take a picnic lunch with you when you do. One of my favorite springtime activities of course is planting. Plant some flowers. Maybe plant some flowers in little pots to give to family or friends to help them celebrate May Day.

Today we experimented preparing for our upcoming Virtual Beltane! Be on the lookout for instructions posted to the Book of Face and in email to follow along at home. Please forgive our video taking skills for when we post for Beltane. This is all a learning process and I'm working on tweaking some editing.

We hope to see what you do for Mayday and Beltane. Please share in the Namron group if you are comfortable doing so. Miss everyone and hope to be able to finally do an event as MoC in the near...ish future.

Yours in Service,
Dýrfinna Mikaelisdóttir
Namron Minister of Children

Make Your Own Mini Maypole

You Will Need

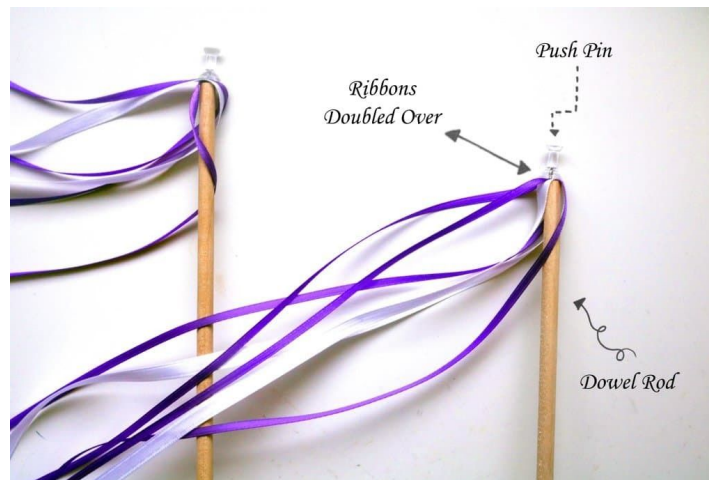

- Dowel rods in a size of your choosing (used here, 12" rods)
- Ribbon
- pushpins (1 for each rod)
- mini flowers to decorate the top
- a hot glue gun

Step 1

Fold each length of ribbon in half over the top of the dowel rod. Stack them on top of each other crosswise. Use as many ribbons as you like. Just remember, the thicker the stack, the harder it is to get the pushpin in.

Step 2

Press a pushpin into the top of the dowel rod where the ribbons intersect.

Step 3

Hot glue mini flowers on the pushpin to finish off the look.

If you plan to do this with little kids, make sure to do this part yourself to avoid burnt little fingers! Let them participate by choosing the flowers themselves.

Variations

There are lots of ways to customize this craft. For example:

-Try weaving the ribbons around the pole about 1/3 of the way down and then letting the loose ends dangle.

-Paint the pole an appropriate color.

-Swap out the flowers at the top for anything you like.

Happy Beltane, everyone!!

FROM THE HERALD

Greetings Namron!

I'm still plugging away at submissions during this time. Work on submissions is still slow at times due to mundane work, but working as I can.

If you have discussed a submission with me, trust that I am working on it, even if you haven't heard back from me. I'm working through the list.

Once we can meet again regularly, I look forward to submitting all the amazing submissions we have been working on.

NAMRON HERALD

FROM THE WORKBENCH OF THE KNIGHT MARSHAL

Greetings, Namron-

I'm still working on loaner armor and getting my yard ready for when we can practice on it. Lord Oddr Marsson has posted some videos that are well worth looking at so, please check them out.

Hopefully, by the time everybody reads this tome, we will be back to collecting new sets of bruises and new stories from our friends!

Oh yes, please be aware of snakes this time of year. I have heard them rattling at me from the shrubbery. Please be careful when you are out working your flower beds and gardens!

Hospitaler's Pen and Quill

reetings, Great Barony of Namron

I want to extend my heartfelt thank you to all of you for allowing me the opportunity to serve as your Hospitaler for the best Barony in the Known World for the past (almost) two years! Each and every one of you has made me feel welcomed when I first took this office with only a couple of months SCA experience. For this, I am eternally grateful.

The time has come for me to pass the touch of guiding newcomers to all things SCA!

I would like to acknowledge my STAR Team of deputies, Lady Nuala Keene, Lady Katheryn Cranesgrove, and Lord Ragnar Kelson of Durham, that selfishly served as my Hospitaler Team! It has been my very best honor to have served with all three of them and I will forever miss our "Hospitaler Team!"

I will miss being your Hospitaler but I know it is time for me to hand the torch over to another person to continue on.

I will always remain in your service,

Lady Ophelia

FROM THE RAPIER MARSHAL

Greetings Wonderful Barony!

It has been a very long month. As we continue to stay home, there is no practice and no in-person event for which to prepare. However, virtual events are becoming more popular and I encourage you to join in and stay connected.

Since lockdown began, many Masters of Defense, White Scarves, and Cadets have been teaching classes for a Virtual Academy of the Rapier! We've had classes on drills you can do at home, by yourself or with a family member, Ansteorran history, SCA Rapier history, and many more. If you haven't joined or seen posts from the Academy event/group page that have been shared elsewhere, I encourage you to join us! There are usually two to four classes a week. You can check the group out here:

www.facebook.com/groups/1867526233377714

When we can hold practice in person again, we are still working on figuring out locations and moving practices back to Tuesday nights. I will keep you all informed about how things progress!

Stay home and stay safe, everyone.

Lady Sabine Fulhaberin

FROM THE WEB MINISTER

Error 404 Webminister not found.

THE WEBMINISTER OF NAMRON IS MISSING.

Some say he is being held captive by evil forces. More say it's the Sinister Seneschal! Others say he is buried deep in the web he has created within his magic box. Yet there are others who still claim he is in a troll cave fighting the dragons of a mythical land all from the comfort of his couch... Those that know though, say it's none of these things. The Webminister is hard at work on a redesign of the Barony's information board of webs! A more end user and newcomer friendly board of information. A plethora of information. A one stop resource some might say.

In the meantime "We have a Website!"

FROM THE MINISTER OF ARTS AND SCIENCE

ood day, Good Populace,

Wow, what an adventure we have had this last month and a half! No? OK... it's been a different kind of adventure! We will go with that!

Instead of the regular Monday night Open Arts and Science Meetings, many have been at home doing a massive amount of sewing and volunteering their skills to protect those that needed masks! I know that we had masks going to the local Hospitals, Fire Stations, nursing homes, and to SCA Members who needed them .

I also took on a project that I thought was going to be small; to take some old US Coast Guard Uniforms and turn them into some masks for my nephew, who's ship was shipping out in two weeks. It turned into "Aunt, can you make some masks for the whole Ship? Oh, and by the way, we leave in a week!"

A HUGE THANK YOU to Baronova Uliana, Baroness Ayesha, Baroness Annabell, and Mistress Vigdis. With their help, we were able to make and send 62 masks in just two days to their ship.

I would also like to acknowledge Firestorm Ink. They have done some amazing original scrolls! These talented artisans have been keeping up on getting scrolls turned in, even though they're not getting together in person. They have also been having some excellent classes online. Our scribes do an amazing job!!!

I'd also like to give a shout out to Boiarynia Kioa for putting on the online Gulf Wars fashion show!

And another shout out to everyone else doing something to keep busy and to stay safe! Woohoo!!!

Now, don't forget Beltane is going to be held Virtually on May 2 this year. We will have the Spang decorating contest, the flower arrangement contest. And lots of classes! Who's Ready? I know that I am! Beltane is my Anniversary Event with the SCA, going on 4 years now.

Love to you all hope to see you on ZOOM at Beltane!

YIS,
Lady Ellyn O'Rowone deGraye

May Black Star Snapshot

Kingdom Combat Archery Marshal is looking for a deputy and the deadline is May 31.

With the plague on the rampage, we must utilize other methods of sharing the dream. The book of faces has a public group called "SCA Virtual Classroom and Artisan Display," to educate, share and inspire. Also, two new local groups are "Firestorm Social Distancing Support" and "Virtual Academy of the Rapier."

To pass a message along from the Black Star, The Society's Youth and Family Achievement Program (Yafa) needs you. This program is not officially in Anstorrea at this time. To rectify this, sign up at <http://yafa.sca.org/index.php/sign-up-your-family> for families and to become a Mentor, sign up at <http://yafa.sca.org/index.php/mentors>. For family membership, one person in the household must be a SCA member. Mentors must be SCA members and pass a background check. Mentors offer their areas of expertise and choose the number of students to take on. For more information, please contact HL Alizand Thorgeirsson nee Lefevre via email yafa@sca.org

FROM THE TREASURER

Greetings,

I am Annabelle Fitzsimmons, your new Treasurer. I would like to thank Lord Oddr for filling in as Emergency Treasurer. I have not completed the report for this month yet. I will have the information on our account at our next populace meeting.

If anyone needs anything, feel free to contact me. Requests for checks must be approved by the Financial Committee and must be accompanied by dedicated receipts. This means nothing else may be purchased on the same receipt.

If there is anyone wishing to be a deputy treasurer, please contact me. This job isn't terribly hard.

I look forward to serving as your Treasurer.

FROM THE THROWN WEAPONS MARSHAL

Greetings Namron!

As a Barony we may or may not open practices back up any time soon. That being said, I want your feedback on what you would like to see from me. Do you want to brave the germs and touch shared weapons? Would you like me to post virtual resources for you? I would love to hear your ideas and opinions on these things. Contact me at thrown-weapons@namron.ansteorra.org

Pleased to be YIS,

Thrown Weapons Marshal

Riddles have been around for centuries, the known oldest documented one being from Mesopotamia from Lagash circa 2350 BC. Ancient and medieval literature is full of riddles. They were used both to bring suspense to the text and to pass on cultural tradition. One example would be the double meanings hidden in the written words that composed the foundation of the knowledge of medieval scholars. The Exeter Book, an anthology of Old English literature from the 10th century, is a treasure trove of some medieval brain teasers.

Test your smarts and see if you can best this medieval mystification:

*A THING CAME MARVELOUSLY MOVING OVER THE WAVES, COMELY FROM THE KEEL UP. IT CALLED OUT TO THE LAND,
LOUDLY RESOUNDING. ITS LAUGHTER WAS HORRIBLE,
AWFUL IN ITS PLACE. ITS EDGES WERE SHARP;
HATEFUL IT WAS, AND SLUGGISH TO BATTLE,
BITTER IN ITS HOSTILE DEEDS. IT DUG INTO SHIELD-WALLS, HARD, RAVAGING. IT SPREAD MISCHIEVOUS SPELLS.
IT SPOKE WITH CUNNING CRAFT ABOUT ITS CREATION:
“DEAREST OF WOMEN IS INDEED MY MOTHER;
SHE IS MY DAUGHTER GROWN BIG AND STRONG.
IT IS KNOWN TO MEN OF OLD, AMONG ALL PEOPLE,
THAT SHE SHALL STAND UP BEAUTIFULLY EVERYWHERE IN THE
