FROM THEIR EXCELLENCIES

Baron Micolay Haiduk And Baronawa Uliana Haiduk

Greeting Namron,

This will be our last time to address you as the Baron and Baronawa of Namron in the Plume. When the next issue is published you will have a new set of Landed Nobility installed. We are very excited to have Lord Yancy and Fru Kolfinna as our successors. We know that they will do an excellent job and that our Populace will support them. Namron is a strong Barony and under their leadership it will remain that way.

The Barony's Protectorate event will be held September 30th through October 2nd, at Camp Graham Ball. We encourage you all to come and watch or participate in our Chivalric, Rapier, Arts and Sciences, and brewing championships. Morning court will also include the investiture of our new Baron and Baroness!

As we prepare to step down, we realize how thankful we are to have such a wonderful Barony. We could not have served this time without our Populace, who make every meeting, practice, and event happen. We will thank a few people individually, but could not have done it without the group as a whole.

We would like to thank Lady Orlaith and Lady Koia for serving as our heads of entourage. Lord Lorenzo, Fru Kolfinna, and Baroness Kyna for serving as the Barony's Seneschals. We worked very closely with them and hope all realize how much they do to keep the Barony running smoothly. We would like to thank Mistress Niccolaia and Master Isaac for coordinating the work on so many of our scrolls and all the members of Firestorm Ink, for all their scribal work. Thank you to Sir Wilhelm and Lady Katherine for their work in Skorragardr. We appreciate all those who have volunteered either as officers, deputy officers, event or activity coordinators, and entourage. Raising your hand and volunteering is the fuel that makes our Society run, and we value all those that do.

The last three years have flown by and, to be honest, some of those times have been rocky. Dealing with the pandemic, canceling events, and putting restrictions on activities has been no fun. We have hated every time we have had to do it, but you all took it all in stride. You all have endured, adapted, and overcome all of the setbacks. That is the single thing for which we are most proud of our Barony. Despite those trying times, serving Namron has been single highest honor and privilege for us. We will ever be,

Yours in Service,

Baron Micolay and Baronowa Uliana

the Seneschal

Greetings Namron!

Falling leaves, coco by the camp fire, early sun sets. September is here.

This month starts the busy season for camping events, so make sure to do Namron proud!

We have a few open offices, including youth rapier marshal, youth chivalric marshal, and archery. If you are interested in any of these please let us know.

My office of the Seneschal is officially open, and will close in late November, so the chosen new seneschal can have a month of crossover before taking over in January. If you are interested, please let me know.

We are officially taking bids for Beltane 2023, the Spang Awakens (working title). These bids are due by October Business meeting. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Namron, I can not wait to see you out and about this coming season!

Namron Out and About!

Reports from the Field

Hi Namron!

How did things go while I was gone? I hope they went well. Pennsic was GREAT, but it was also obnoxiously humid the whole time. I was never dry.

I also saw a pair of my boots through to the end of their life while I was there. They have a big crack down the sole now, so I don't think I can extend their life any further. They were good boots. I wore them to many an SCA event.

By the way, the chocolate milk at Pennsic really is THAT GOOD. It's also remarkably well priced. A quart only costs about $2.50! I drank too much of it; note to future Zhen, a quart is too much milk to chug in the span of 15 minutes, no matter how tasty it is.

Chili Night went super well; we had almost 200 people there and ran out of Chili in about 45 minutes, after 8 hours of preparation. Lots and lots of people expressed how happy they were that we did Chili Night again this year.

Please let me know what you got up to in the early part of August! You can find me on Facebook under my SCA name.

~Chu Fu (Lady) Hu Zhen
