NAMRON PROTECTORATE

FROM THEIR EXCELLENCIES:

Greetings to our fabulous populace,

Cooler temperatures are on their way, and so is an exciting fall event season! We hope everyone has had a fantastic summer. While there's always more we'd love to accomplish, we're truly grateful for those who helped us repair and clean Phredrica the shed. We also managed to finish more of the painting on the new Gwyneth pavilion, and we can't wait to show it off in the coming months.

We'd love to see you all at our September Populace meeting on the 4th at 7pm at Forgotten Labyrinth Game Shop. Feel free to stick around afterward to try out a game or two! There are also plenty of planning meetings coming up for both Protectorate and Axeman, so keep an eye out for more info on Facebook, Discord, and the email list. We hope to see you at some of our regular practices and classes as well.

With the busy season approaching, there are many ways you can get involved. If you'd like to help out with any event or office, just come find us — we'll be happy to point you in the right direction and answer any questions you might have.

And if you've read this far, let us know by answering this question the next time we see you: What was your favorite memory from a past Protectorate event?

Yours in Service,

FROM THE SENESCHAL:

Greetings to the populace Of Namron,

We are going to be busy for the next few months. We have Protectorate in October, Axeman in November, and We are hosting Winter Crown, and if you can help any of the autocrats I know they would really appreciate it.

Baronial Awards are on the AMP and T.E would like you to submit award recs early to give them more time to prepare scrolls.

There is a Baronial Inventory scheduled on 9-27-25.

And all officers are looking for deputies who may in the future be interested in doing an office, if you have any questions about any office please talk with that officer, myself, or T.E. Namron.

In Service,

Adria Lorelle, Op
Seneschal, Barony of Namron
Modernly Known As: Terry Smith
Phone: 580-512-4277

FROM THE CHRONICLER:

It's over, it's finally over...

The long hot Summer months are behind us now, and Protectorate fast approaches (just one month...might be time to panic if you're working on something).

I'm going to cheat and answer the question about my favorite protectorate now...it was many, many years ago and it was being held at Camp Cimarron if I remember correctly (Ulf and Maleah were invested at the time). It was a night time bardic competition and just about everyone was there. We had lit the area with torches, but could barely keep them lit due to the wind. It was the first time I ever heard the forbidden song (IYKYK), and at the end of the song (for which the wind had mercifully died for a short time) a large gust blew through extinguishing all light. Perfect end to the song about the trickster god who gave fire to mankind.

Also, just in case you haven't read that far or noticed, but I have started listing events in our neighboring kingdoms that are (relatively) nearby. At least, they're no further than War of the Rams...at least not by map directions. I cannot be held accountable for any road construction or detours upon your chosen route.

And finally, the Axeman cometh...again. Go tell a friend. Then tell that friend to tell a friend...and then they'll tell two friends, and then they'll tell two friends, and then they'll tell two friends...

That's the theory at least. Your mileage may vary.

FROM THE QUARTERMASTER:

Quartermaster's Corner

Good day, to all! Serena here, your friend baronial Quartermaster. Long time, no see.

I wanted to take a moment to say hello and tell you all about a very important event coming up. We will be conducting a full Baronial inventory on Saturday, September 27th starting 9am at Phredrica. We will be doing an in-depth count and reorganizing of both sheds so the more the merrier. Once we are done at Phredrica, we will move on to Phred. We will also be doing a few minor repairs to each of the sheds in the process.

We will make sure to have Shade and Cool drinks available as well as some snacks for anyone who can attend! So please consider dropping by and lending a hand, or showing some moral support. Please bring a chair for breaks and more comfortable counting!

Now, Some Armor-clad Humor

Q: When were Medieval armies too tired to fight?

A: When they had a lot of sleepless knights!

Q: What was Camelot famous for?

A: It's Knight life.

Q: What does a Medieval postman wear?

A: Chain Mail.

Ok, I'm done.... For now.

I look forward to seeing you all at Inventory and Event load outs this season.

Quartermaster of Namron

FROM THE HERALD:

Greetings Namron,

Anyone interested in submitting a name or device should feel free to contact me at herald@namron.ansteorra.org. I don't currently have office hours as my schedule keeps me rather busy, but I'm happy to work with you to find a time when we can meet in person or online. I'm hoping to host a heraldic table later this year, ideally at Wiesenfeuer's Yule event.

For anyone interested in serving as a voice herald, I encourage you to volunteer at any of the numerous local events coming up over the next few months. Both site and field heralds will be needed, and we welcome anyone interested learning more about how to serve as such.

Yours in Service,
Don Cornelius Merilainen

NAMRON: A BRIEF SYNOPSIS

The Barony of Namron is a local branch of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (a not-for-profit organization).

Our geographical area includes Norman, Moore and Shawnee, Oklahoma, but it has members throughout central and southwest Oklahoma. Learn a little more about our barony on our introduction page located on our website:

[http://
www.baronyofnamron.org/](http://www.baronyofnamron.org/)

The S.C.A. is an international educational organization dedicated to the study and recreation of the European Middle Ages, examining and enacting the crafts, sciences, arts, traditions, heraldry, literature, etc. of western civilization during the years between 600 AD and 1600 AD. We have dancing and cooking, costuming and armoring, calligraphy and brewing, ... If they did it in the Middle Ages, the chances are that we have someone in the S.C.A. who does it too.

Yes! We have fighting. Our fighters attempt to (safely) recreate the fighting styles of the time period and one can find them battling it out with polearm and broadsword on one field while two others go after it with rapiers on another field.

The Kingdom of Ansteorra is composed of the modern day Oklahoma and most of Texas. The Barony of Namron formed. It grew and became a barony a few months after Ansteorra became a Kingdom. Namron has continued to grow, and now has a Canton centered in Shawnee, Oklahoma, as well as a group forming in the Maysville area.

We recreate the Middle Ages, but not everything from that time. Participants in the S.C.A. are considered to be of noble birth: we chose not to re-enact the slavery and the hardships of peasant life. We also do not reenact the Plague, and we recognize that some of us need our modern bifocals and antibiotics. We do try to fit it all in to a more "period" setting, though, and part of the fun is trying to creatively hide the modern day items we take with us.

You can also learn much more about the Society for Creative Anachronism on the international website. A good introduction can be found at
