FROM THE SENESCHAL:

Greeting unto the Barony of Namron,

In October we have a lot of things going on this month. We have Namron Protectorate the weekend of 10-3 thru 10-5, Coronation on 10-11, Mooneschadowe on the 10-18, Samhain on 10-24 thru 10-26, and the Axeman 10-31 thru 11-2. If you are travelling to events please be careful and if possible, take a friend. Please contact the event stewards for Protectorate and for Axeman to help out our groups.

I officially have a deputy, Sir Cadmus....yay

It is recommended that every officer have a deputy to train in their office and help out in case of emergency. If you are curious about an office, ask that officer about it and see if it is something you might want to learn more about. Without officers doing their jobs, the SCA as a whole can't happen.

Starting this month, we will be looking for bids for coordinators for Medfair, Gulf War camp coordinator, and Beltane. If you are interested but have questions please ask questions and ask for help writing up your bids.

Yours In Service,
Adria Lorelle, OP
Seneschal, Barony of Namron

FROM THE QUARTERMASTER:

The fall event season is in full swing and with it are several volunteer opportunities! From gate, to feast and everything in between. You could contribute to making a good event an amazing one.

Not to mention all the super fun events, activities, competitions and celebrations that are on the horizon, what's not to look forward to? You could be a future champion so make sure to get your entries ready.

On a mundane note, winter is coming! Right now is a great time to start thinking about winterizing your daily chariot! Get those batteries tested, check your fluids, rotate your tires and make sure your brakes are ready to go. You may also want to get your winter gear out and make sure it is ready before you need it. Cold weather has a tendency of sneaking up on us so stay sharp out there!

And now, for a little giggle!

Q: What do you call a medieval spy?

A: Sir Veillance

Q: What's the rain's favorite medieval reenactment?

A: Storming the Castle

Back in Medieval Times, King Arthur had a knight that collected taxes.

His name was Sir Charge.

FROM THE CHRONICLER:

Well...time flies. It's officially a year since I sent out my first Plume of this decade, and in keeping with that tradition...this one is going to be a bit late as well. I'd blame Protectorate, but it's the other p-word this time (procrastination...not whatever else you were thinking).

However, speaking of Protectorate and the plans for 50th anniversary, I plan on running a series of articles celebrating and remembering this momentous occasion. And there may also be a special edition (or two) in the works.

There may also be further developments as the year progresses. Time can only tell. So, for now, I leave you to your busy eventing season until the cold and holidays tell us to stay put in our synthetic caves once more.

NAMRON: A BRIEF SYNOPSIS

The Barony of Namron is a local branch of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (a not-for-profit organization).

Our geographical area includes Norman, Moore and Shawnee, Oklahoma, but it has members throughout central and southwest Oklahoma. Learn a little more about our barony on our introduction page located on our website:

[http://
www.baronyofnamron.org/](http://www.baronyofnamron.org/)

The S.C.A. is an international educational organization dedicated to the study and recreation of the European Middle Ages, examining and enacting the crafts, sciences, arts, traditions, heraldry, literature, etc. of western civilization during the years between 600 AD and 1600 AD. We have dancing and cooking, costuming and armoring, calligraphy and brewing, ... If they did it in the Middle Ages, the chances are that we have someone in the S.C.A. who does it too.

Yes! We have fighting. Our fighters attempt to (safely) recreate the fighting styles of the time period and one can find them battling it out with polearm and broadsword on one field while two others go after it with rapiers on another field.

The Kingdom of Ansteorra is composed of the modern day Oklahoma and most of Texas. The Barony of Namron formed. It grew and became a barony a few months after Ansteorra became a Kingdom. Namron has continued to grow, and now has a Canton centered in Shawnee, Oklahoma, as well as a group forming in the Maysville area.

We recreate the Middle Ages, but not everything from that time. Participants in the S.C.A. are considered to be of noble birth: we chose not to re-enact the slavery and the hardships of peasant life. We also do not reenact the Plague, and we recognize that some of us need our modern bifocals and antibiotics. We do try to fit it all in to a more "period" setting, though, and part of the fun is trying to creatively hide the modern day items we take with us.

You can also learn much more about the Society for Creative Anachronism on the international website. A good introduction can be found at
