The Barony of Wiesenfeuer

A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!!

Personal Testimony from the Chronicler

You may pick up a newsletter printed in the past and see the words written above and wonder how true they are. You may wonder if these people are just a bunch of weird people running around playing at swords. I've been a member of this organization for 6 months now. These people are some of the best people you will ever meet. The people in it learn, share, and teach everything you can think of. They practice those skills that they learn. They invest time and energy into making those relationships that better everyone from the old to the new. You cannot really appreciate it until you see and then do. You can spend as much or as little time as you like participating, this will be the most exhausting and exciting hobby you will ever have. Welcome to our ever expanding world of friends.

Words from the Seneschal

Diwrnod da (good day),

Well Red Plains Baronial was a super massive awesome success! I want to thank everyone who worked so hard to make it happen. To our retired Baron and Baroness Ciaran and Branislava thank you for your hard work, may your retired years be all that you wish them to be. To our new Baronesses great job looking forward to all the awesome that we will do.

As the new Seneschal for the great Barony of Wiesenfeuer I have lots of plans and I am super excited for the opportunities that we have. I have added to my report a document that I created that I would like to share with the awesome populace of our Barony. It is the handout for my Recruitment and Retention class. It would be great if you could read through it and if you have any questions please feel free to reach out to me.=

So here are my thoughts on recruitment and retention.

Recruitment and Retention is everyone's job! Every participant in this fabulous game needs to recruit and retain. Towards this end, the first thing that everyone playing SCA needs to do is stop spending so much time on the negative parts of the SCA. We need to remember why we are playing this game we need to make our own fun. Everyone has 10 positive stories about the SCA for every one negative story. Yet people tend to focus on the negative. This is poisonous for both recruitment and retention. I am looking at recruitment into the SCA as marketing the SCA, with marketing; you are more successful if you target your marketing to the audience who is already predisposed to the SCA. Everyone who plays SCA has some fundamental things that we all have in common. For example most people who play SCA have played roleplaying games and or collect comic books so putting a come check the SCA out sign at a Gaming shop is a good idea. Like a good story the marketing needs to be tailored to the audience. Here are some of the tools I use, and my thoughts on how best to use them.

Recruitment ideas:

Demos:

Need a pre planning meeting treat them like a mini event, make sure everyone who is coming understands this is our best foot forward good impression time. Tailor your layout and people placement to best work off of the abilities those who attend. You would not put the shy introvert at the front handing out business cards etc.

Recruitment posters:

They should be placed in libraries, bookstores, game shops, liquor stores and any place the group meets at. (This one should have when the group meets on it at that location). They should look really nice and be catching to the eye. They should have enough information that after looking at the poster they can make contact with someone in the group.

Business cards:

Great for SCA players who enjoy walking up and talking to anyone, small easy to carry every extrovert in the group should have some. They should look nice and have enough information on them to make contact with the group simple. They can be given out anywhere. They should have a blank space on them so the person handing it out can put their contact info on it. This small gesture helps establish the connections to keep people interested in our game.

Bookmarks:

- If you buy books at a book store place a book mark in the next one on the shelf.
- If you are at a Library you can leave a stack of them at the checkout desk.
- When you buy your favorite beer put one in the next six pack of beer, on the shelf.
- They should look nice and have a way to contact the local group easily.
- These can also be used in other locations like craft stores, liquor stores, and gaming supply stores.
- Give 10 to each member of the populace and tell them to give them all away before the next meeting.
- You can also tailor the bookmark for where you are planning on having it placed.

Flyers:

Great for demos, needs to look good and have a ton of information with each section having links to send people to.

Raffle item:

Best used at demos and monthly activities. Have a small nice SCA thing that people have to fill out a contact information sheet to earn a raffle ticket for the nice SCA thing. (Pouch, cloth belt, feast gear etc etc etc) to get the ticket their contact info needs to be legible. At the end of the demo draw a ticket match it to the contact sheet send the winner the prizes as well as a coupon, everyone else send them a letter that says sorry you did not win the SCA thing but here is a coupon. Now the coupon is for a free something i.e. please come to this activity we will make you a tunic or a dress, come to this activity and you get a pouch but have them RSVP. The person that they need to contact should be on the coupon. This will give the people running the activity an idea of what to expect. The letter that goes out should invite them to the next thing on your group's calendar and list what else is going on that month. Every activity creates a raffle opportunity.

Contact List:

Usually gets name address phone email and interests usually used at a Demo. Before anyone puts info on a contact list an email that thanks them for the interest, and inviting them to the meeting and listing the different activities. It needs to be ready to send before the demo even happens. If you have a three day demo then when the demo shuts down on day 1 an email goes out to anyone on the contact list. Day 2 ends send out the same email to those people who filled out the contact list on day 2. Then on day 3 after the demo is done send out the email to the day 3 people. After the demo have a team split the contact list into activities and send a second email directed at the activities they have shown interest in.

Meeting places:

Public neutral locations are best for meetings and group activities. Libraries, hobby stores all have places to hold A&S classes and meetings. The benefits to this are a neutral location that will help advertise your class and give you the opportunity to also recruit new members. Also it shows you are part of the community which will help if you are trying to use a community center or a park. When the meeting is over have a restaurant that everyone goes to afterwards, this helps with group comradery and spirit de corps.

Mini Events:

We have a full Kingdom Event Calendar; however when you are brand new to the SCA the idea of driving several hours out to the middle of nowhere and spending X amount of money may be intimidating. However if you have a mini one day event with a little bit of everything (A&S, fighting rapier and chivalric, archery, knife, ax and spear) have a feast and songs and stories. You get the chance to train newer established members on how events run and how to do a feast and the newest members get a small taste of the magic that is an SCA event.

Retention:

Everyone who leaves the SCA has a reason for doing so, but the main reason people stay is because of the relationships. So one of the best ways to retain members is to nurture those relationships, keep in contact with the people you have made connections with, call email and visit, check on them, make sure they know they are missed, and invite them to activities. If you go to a meeting and you don't see someone that you expected to see, check on them it is really easy to lose SCA participants because they feel they have lost that connection. Finally we must make our own fun this awesome hobby is time and resource expensive make sure you are having fun while you do it, because if we are all having fun then we will attract the people who are looking for the good time that is the SCA.

I cannot stress enough how excited I am to go on this great journey with all of you, it will be awesome!

Do you want to learn or perhaps have experience to offer? Your barony could use your help! And I would appreciate the assistance. Also, my warrant expires next January, so if anyone is interested in applying for the job, I'd be happy to start showing you the ropes now. Please contact me at herald@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org

Message from the Minister of Arts and Science

What an exciting month it has been in Wiesenfeuer! We had a wonderful turnout for our Dirty Dozen Donation Derby and we were able to pass on some very impressive largesse to our new Baronesses as well as to our newest Crown of Ansteorra. Congratulations to Deirdre and Valia, and my thanks go out to all of you who donated, volunteered, supported and voted in our first 4D. We had so much fun we might just do it again next year, so keep working on those largesse projects!

We plan to continue with our monthly Arts & Sciences nights at the Camp Dakani Nature Center, 7pm on the second Thursday of each month. This month, I have arranged for a very special guest speaker. Professor Kevin Caliendo of Rose State College has offered to present his research on Anglo-Saxon forestry and beekeeping. Thursday, May 12 at 7pm at the Camp Dakani Nature Center, 3309 E Hefner Rd. Let's give him a warm Wiesenfeuer welcome!

Message from the Baronial Steward

Greetings,

I wanted to take time to thank all of those that helped load, tote, set up, break down, and bring stuff back to the Baronial shed. We are still missing the tiki torches. So, please look to see if you have them.

We are also planning on doing a Shed "purge"/inventory sometime August or September. If you have any items that belong to the Barony please return them. For our officers, please only return the items which are not needed for your office. Please make arrangements with me to get things to the shed. We will also need a list of any other items that you are holding onto along with photos (if possible). This will help us greatly.

Thanks for your time and your service to our great Barony.

Long live the Dream,

HL Aldric de Kerr

Message from the Minister of Children

Greetings all!

Spring has been and continues to be busy for your friendly neighborhood MoCs. From Med Faire to Baronial to Beltaine and on to Castellan, Kings College, and the Myrgenfeld demo and the start of our summer season of Sunday in the Park! Whew! Busy busy!!!

We have also been asked to help other MoCs in the kingdom rework and revamp the Page School! It will be a program that helps our youth learn the skills they need to transition into adult society. Our vision is to give it more structure and make it goal and family oriented. We are always looking for people who want to lend a hand, teach, and guide our youth.

If you have ideas for the page school or want to help with the Sunday in the Park days please, please, please let us know!

In service,

Ly Liadan of Patrin-Or
