

LATNEBEARER

The Barony of Wiesenfeuer

Anno Societatis LII Being May 2017 CE

A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!!

Personal Testimony from the Chronicler

You may pick up a newsletter printed in the past and see the words written above and wonder how true they are. You may wonder if these people are just a bunch of weird people running around playing at swords. I've been a member of this organization for 6 months now. These people are some of the best people you will ever meet. The people in it learn, share, and teach everything you can think of. They practice those skills that they learn. They invest time and energy into making those relationships that better everyone from the old to the new. You cannot really appreciate it until you see and then do. You can spend as much or as little time as you like participating, this will be the most exhausting and exciting hobby you will ever have. Welcome to our ever expanding world of friends.

Message from the Chronicler

Hello again

Red Plains Baronial was fun. I am so glad I got to go out and hang with everyone. It was the first time I think I was able to sit through an entire drumming, dancing, and bardic competition. It was so much fun to sit and listen. I really need to learn some of the drumming rhythms. Sitting and listening/watching is a blast but participating seems to make any of the experiences so much more exciting and enjoyable. Also handling some of the court herald duties with the new Candelaio Pusivant (our new baronial herald) Ivan Barnes was a real test under fire. Some things happened beautifully and some hiccups occurred. But most of all it was fun. I know Ivan is going to do an incredible job as the new herald. I'm also grateful that their Excellencies asked me to help out.

I've not made many changes this month. The list of offices open for application has increased a little as we have added the Webminister and the Chronicler to the official list. Also the champions lists have been updated. Congratulations to all the winners. Check out the list of positions and champions later in this publication, apply for any you want to help with or offer to be a deputy if you can, and don't forget to congratulate our newest champions.

On a personal note I'm suppose to start a bunch of meds this week. One of them has the side effects of headache, muscle pain, dry mouth, nausea, vomiting, stomach pain, loss of appetite, weight loss, feeling tired or irritable, anxiety, and mood changes. So expect to see the slimmer me in all new garb this fall. Actually I use to take this medicine in 2001 and lost 40 lbs. So that is totally possible. Also if I get a little snappy please forgive me. I will try hard not to but I'm told that after working all day I can get that way on the meds.

See you all at populace and Cooking Collegium!

Treasurer's Report

Greetings to the Barony.

As of April 30st, the Barony has a total of $4805.36 in its account, with $4733.24 being the Baronies money and $72.12 belonging to the Cantons of the Barony.

Baronial Officers, remember that Baronial funds must be used for items to benefit the entire Barony. Any items purchased must go onto the the inventory and are the responsibility of the officer. If you need to know what your budget is, please ask.

Please make sure to complete an updated inventory when the office transitions. This will make the job easier for the new officer and for me when annual inventory comes around.

Any expense that is not a budgeted expense must be submitted to the financial committee. The financial committee meets after officers meeting each month. At this time, no unbudgeted expense will be approved by the financial committee. All money in the account is budgeted.

YIS,
Aubrey Ericsdatter

Officers Positions Open

Besides the Knife, Axe, and Spear Marshal which is currently open, there are several positions that are going to be open in the next year and many open deputy spots. One way you learn is by doing. We respectfully ask if there is a position you can help with to please ask to be a deputy to someone. Especially if you are thinking about becoming an officer in the future. Being a deputy is the best way to learn how. With that said below is the list of available spots. Please contact the appropriate officer, Seneschal, Baroness, or Baron if you are interested. Sir Burke has requested that anyone who wishes to be a deputy seneschal please take his place.

Youth combat is for boys and girls are 6 to 15 years. They fight with foam-padded weapons. There are 3 age divisions within the program; 6-9 years, 10-12 years, and 13-15 years. The armor requirements and the strength of blows allowed increase as a child progresses through the levels.

Beginning Equipment for Youth Combat:

Each new youth fighter should wear long pants, a long-sleeve shirt, closed-toe shoes, lightweight gloves, and groin protection. A parent or an adult designated by the parent needs to be present throughout the practice.

There is some loaner armor but anything you can provide yourself is helpful. Armor requirements vary by age but all ages will need a helmet with face guard (such as a hockey or lacrosse helmet) and a gorget (medium-weight leather with ½ inch closed-cell padding). Knee and elbow pads are required for the older kids and helpful for the younger. The full armor and weapon requirements and rules for combat may be found in the Complete Participants Handbook. This is available on the Kingdom Earl Marshal's website at <http://marshal.ansteorra.org/armored>. Of course feel free to contact your friendly local marshal with any questions!
