A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

A little about us

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!!

Message from our Baronesses:

Greetings all you Amazing folk of Wiesenfeuer!!

Winter is almost over and it's been a rough one. The Barony is strong and will carry on telling tales and never forgetting those who we've lost. HE Valia and I extend our heart felt sympathy to those who have lost a loved one over the last few months. We also thank everyone for coming together as family during this time. To those of the Barony having their own battles with a various variety of illnesses.... knock it off and get better soon! Also know that if you need anything your Barony is here for you. Let us know how we can help. Love to you and yours.

March is here and so is GULF WAR! We hope all who are able to attends have safe passage and a wonderful time. Hopefully spring time weather will be here when you return. Those left behind will guard and keep watch over the Barony and Cantons as we continue to prepare for Baronial in April. Keep on the lookout for ways you can help make Baronial a Most Awesome Event!

After Gulf War, we've got Med-Faire, and Coronation before our event. We hope to see you all there!

Yours in Service,

Deirdre ni Raghailigh

Valia of the Mist

Baronesses of Wiesenfeuer

Ladies of Haldtre and Myrgenfeld

Message from the Seneschal:

Greetings Wiesenfeuer!

The month of March is upon and with it hopefully comes warmer weather. We also hear the drums of war beating as many members of our Kingdom travel towards Gulf Wars to contend with any and all who would pit their skills against ours. Much is the folly of those who dare to stand against the greatness of Ansteorra and our Northern Army. For those planning on attending, we wish you safe journey, fun fellowship, and hope that you return safely full of awesome stories to tell.

After the awesomeness of Gulf Wars passes, we have the Medieval Faire down in the lands of Namron where we get the chance to go and show others the glory of our fighters, artisans, and service. The Namron hospitaler is in need of people to assist with various areas within our compound. This is another opportunity to serve and is of great assistance to the demo. Please try to go out and support our compound if you are able to do so.

We also have Coronation and our own event coming up in the month of April. Please reach out to folks if you are looking for ways to assist.

In everything, have fun, stay hydrated, be awesome!

Long live the Dream,

HE Aldric de Kerr

Message from the Reeve:

As we are gearing up for our spring event season if you have not had a gate class recently please consider doing so! We will need people to help with gate for Baronial and other groups can always use help as well. I will have a gate class following Populace in April and will see about doing another at an A&S night after people return from Gulf Wars.

Message from the Knight Marshal

Message from the Knight Marshal:

My office is charged with coordinating fighter practice and making sure everyone stays safe while training. Our fighting is un-choreographed medieval style combat wearing armor and we hit each other with weapons made of rattan for safety. All are welcome as we have plenty of loaner armor to put you in to give it a try. Please bring athletic groin protection, and wear a long sleeve shirt, pants not shorts, and closed toed shoes.

In service,

Lord Oddr Marsson

Message from the Archery Marshall:

The cold has killed official archery practices but in their place we are meeting at Archery Traditions in Yukon 6-8pm with a $7.50 lane fee paid to the business. We meet on Wednesdays the 1st, 3rd & 5th weeks of each month and Thursdays the 2nd & 4th weeks of each month, keep an eye out on the baronial FB page and Firestorm Archers FB page for updates. Loaner gear is not provided by the marshal unless contacted at least a day before the practice however there is equipment available for rent there. Otherwise no new business at this time. Come out and shoot!

Message from the Chronicler:

It is my honor to serve the finest gentles in the Known World. With each installment of the Flamebearer I am striving to make it a finer publication. I would be ever more excited if I could add more input from our populace, such as the news that has been reported by Iarll Owen ap Aeddan. Artwork, articles, recipes, stories, poems, anything to enhance the Dream through our newsletter are welcome. Please email me at chronicler@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org or text me 405-535-6952 if you have anything to submit or any questions.

I am happy to announce that our very own Seneschal, HE Aldric de Kerr, has submitted the winning artwork that is this day gracing the cover of our fine newsletter.

Message from the Herald:

So Long and Thanks for All the Support

Well we aren't there yet but we are coming to this point quickly. Faster than I or anyone else really thought. In August I will have officially served as the Candelaio Pursuivant for 2 years. You might ask what is the Candelaio Pursuivant. Well I actually get that from time to time. Candelaio Pursuivant is the heraldic title that refers to the Wiesenfeuer baronial herald. As the time grows short and round table is only 4 months and a few days away, I'm announcing that the office is open for application.

So this is the perfect time to help grow the heraldic efforts in the barony. It is a big job but it isn't a job that needs to be done if a vacuum. There are a lot of people in the area that are willing to help out. Personally I have a love for the voice heraldry and for the admin side. There are so many different areas that need to be worked on and grown though. It is time for someone else to step up and help it grow.

If you are interested in the position please send an application (<http://seneschal.ansteorra.org/forms/ApplicationJan08.pdf>) and your proof of membership to the Equinox Herald, our seneschal, our baronesses, and to this office.

Also I'm not ditching the group so I'll be around to help out in any way the new herald wants. So if you are newer and thinking hey this is too much, don't worry I and others have your back. It cannot hurt to apply.

For those wanting to know what this position is all about I'm planning to do a discussion about this at A&S on February 7th. Also again I'll try and find some time at baronial between site heraldry, list heraldry, and court prep to do it this again if anyone is interested.

Now for the rest of the office business.

The fighters badge was recently submitted to kingdom. It is working its way through the system along with some other submissions. It takes a long time. There are a lot of period issues as well as legal issues to consider when deciding on submissions. If you are interested to know the status of anything you have a couple of options.

One option is to email an active herald. Email is better than asking in person. We don't always remember to check later.

Another is to check <https://oscar.sca.org/index.php?action=181> if the submission has gone to Corporate or <https://oscar.sca.org/index.php?action=217> for Kingdom letters being decided.

Lastly if you have any scribal or heraldic activities you are working on please let me know. This office is the reporting office for all things that affect the college of scribes and heralds. So let me know and I can let others know of the awesome things that is happening.

News from Winter War Maneuvers

As reported by Iarll Owen ap Aeddán, Marchog of Ansteorra

As I have played and traveled in the wonderful world of the SCA, there is only one currency that holds its value throughout the known world and that is Word Fame. Please see and hear the following:

Lo did a small but fierce, group of mighty warriors from Ansteorra travel north to the Glorious Kingdom of Calontir to the Barony of Mag Mor. Many times have I made this trek with harness and weapons of war, to test the armies of Calontir and help them make ready for the coming wars. As years past we traveled with many fine gifts, to bestow upon our friends in the Falcon Kingdom. For the great and mighty King Donngal and the ever fierce and beautiful Queen Catalina, had already declared that the mighty Falcon Host would spread its wings and bring the might of Calontir against the enemies of Ansteorra. Which I did hear with my own ears at the Coronation of our truest allies in January.

Our Harbingers were Centurion Ashikaga and Lady Thorvi, they made our accommodations ready for us and the King's road was clear of bandits. Centurion Ashikaga spent the day making everyone regret that he fought with glaive and spear, watching him kill folks was poetry in motion and beautiful to watch, truly beautiful. His good humor and wisdom made the evening pass with much enjoyment and he is a treasure of Ansteorra. Lady Thorvi fought like a lioness and she overcame many obstacles to bring honor to her house of Wolfstar, and her soon to be home of Ansteorra.

I traveled with my squire Centurion Alexandre, Lord Rashid, Lord Godfrey, Lord Takeshi, we left out of Wiesenfeuer late Friday traveled the distance to Winter War Maneuvers, due to the might of the Calontir Crown we encountered no bandits and our trip was smooth and uneventful. We arrived safely in the lands of the Barony of Mag Mor rested and prepared ourselves for the glory that was to be had.

Centurion Alexandre, Centurion Ashikaga and myself decided that our war band would be commanded by Lord Rashid. Which he had not done before and with a little nudge here and there comported himself with dignity and skill befitting an Ansteorran, that brought honor and renown to our Kingdom. His commands were heard clearly and he worked with the Calontir commanders so we could best help our allies prepare for war.

Centurion Alexandre was a solid addition to our small wall, his sword claimed many lives and his solid defense kept our poles and spears alive and killing. His fights between the melees brought a small tear to his knight's eye, as seeing his squire fighting well and loving it, did my heart some much needed good.

Lord Rashid not only commanded well but fought like a lion, not only in the melees, but his fights between the sessions, which brought a parade of fighters, knights, and members of Calontir's royal family over to me to show me the Rashid's patented "Rashid bruise" that he had placed on all of them.

Many voices were raised in praising Rashid throughout the day and even late into the revel.

Lord Godfrey my stalwart friend and squire to Count William Miesko the Bear, more times than I can count did his shield and sword save my life. Not only did he represent our fair Kingdom well on the field but he also created the beautiful benches that were given to the Calontir Crowns and were much loved by them and the Queen of Meridies. We as a Kingdom are blessed to have such a good and true man within our borders.

Lord Takeshi newest fighter in our group comported himself well and brought honor to his liege Lord Godfrey, much did he do, much did he learn and all were grateful for his presence. I am not sure but I believe he has almost completed a quest that he has under taken and it brought joy to my heart to see a young fighter from Ansteorra fight with such passion.

After mid-day we presented the many gifts to Her Majesty Calontir, some of the items were more special than usual and I wish to speak on them:

The box, Centurion William has made 11 boxes for the Crowns of Calontir, we do not stain or paint the box as it is the Crowns box to do with as they will. I have been told several times by many different Crowns how much they appreciate the epic box that this good man makes.

Normally I fill the box with things the Crown of Calontir has said they like, with very little help however this year Centurion Alexandre's Man at Arms Ivan Half-Jaw, said unto me if we are asking them to fight with us we should help them get more fighters. He then added a helmet to the box and a basket hilt was thrown in for good measure.

It is truly a blessed thing to have and know such good people, the Kingdom of Calontir are true and good allies, and some of my favorite memories involve trips to go see our friends in that great Kingdom. It has been my honor to represent our glorious and mighty King Miguel and the deadly and beautiful Queen Conal at Calontir's Crown Tournament, Coronation, and the always awesome Winter War Maneuvers. Thank you for having faith in me to do this for you.

Our trip home was filled with stories of all the epic of the weekend, and the enjoyment of good friends having a great time with awesome people.

So swear I,
Iarll Owen ap Aeddau
Marchog of Ansteorra

Spotlight on Period Literature:

In Praise of War

by Bertran de Born, Poet Warrior

The beautiful spring delights me well,
When flowers and leaves are growing
And it pleases my heart to hear the swell
Of the birds' sweet chorus flowing
In the echoing wood;
And I love to see, all scattered around,
Pavilions, tents, on the martial ground;
And my spirit finds it good
To see, on the level plains beyond,
Gay knights and steeds caparisoned.

It pleases me when the lancers bold
Set men and armies flying;
And it pleases me, too, to hear around
The voice of the soldiers crying;
And joy is mine
When the castles strong, besieged, shake,
And walls uprooted totter and crack,
And I see the foemen join,
On the moated shore all compassed round
With the palisade and guarded mound.

Lances, and swords, and stained helms,
And shields, dismantled and broken,
On the verge of the bloody battle-scene,
The field of wrath betoken;
And the vassals are there,
And there fly the steeds of the dying and dead;
And where the mingled strife is spread,
The noblest warrior's care
Is to cleave the foeman's limbs and head, —
The conqueror less of the living than dead.

I tell you that nothing my soul can cheer,
Or banqueting or reposing,
Like the onset-cry of "Charge them!" rung
From each side, as in battle closing,
Where the horses neigh,
And the call to "Aid!" is echoing loud;
And there on the earth the lowly and proud
In the fosse together lie;
And yonder is piled the mangled heap
Of the brave that scaled the trench's steep.

Barons, your castles in safety place,
Your cities and villages too,
Before ye haste to the battle-scene!
And, Papiol, quickly go,
And tell the Lord of "Oc and No!"
That peace already too long hath been!
