A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!!

Message from the Seneschal

Greetings Wiesenfeuer!

The winds and rains of April have brought us green lands. In addition to this, Med-Fair has brought us new people interested in being part of our Dream. Please assist them in getting better acquainted with the various areas that we have available in the SCA, Kingdom, and our Barony.

For those that missed our annual Baronial event, let me say that you truly missed a great one. Large thanks go out to Oddr Marsson and his crew for doing such a great job of autocrating this event. I heard that this was his first time autocrating. He truly did an awesome job!

Now that May is here, we look at other events. In the Northern Region, we have Namron's Beltane, Northkeep's Castellan, and Myrgenfeld Collegium. If you have the opportunity to go to these events, please try to do so.

We are also looking at repairing the roof for the Baronial Shed. Depending on weather, the tentative date for this is Saturday, May 11th. This the same weekend as Queen's Champion, so we will understand if there are those that wish to go and support our Queen and our Kingdom at that event. We will let folks know if the weather has made it necessary to hold off on working on the shed.

I would also like to announce that I have a second deputy. Freybjorn Hoskuldrson has applied and been accepted for this deputy position. I look forward to working with her and Angelina Francesca de Nardi for the remainder of my term as Seneschal.

Please remember to stay hydrated, have fun, and be awesome!

Long live the dream,

HE Aldric de Kerr

Message from the Archery Marshal

Archery Practice time has slightly changed for 2019.

When: 4-6pm every Sunday possible Where: 5102 Woodhollow Dr, OKC

Check the Barony of Wiesenfeuer and Firestorm Archers Facebook pages for practice announcements.

Recommend bringing to practice: chair, sunscreen, water.

Loaner gear is available. However, even if using loaner gear I highly suggest folks buy their own glove (~$10). A good source is Archery Traditions in Yukon (open Tues-Sat), it makes a BIG difference in shooting quality when your glove fits well and is comfy.

Message from the Siege Marshal

I will be holding siege practices from 1pm-3pm on June 9 and July 21. Location is 1441 W Indian Hills Rd. Norman. Thank you

Message from the Minister of Arts and Sciences

Greetings unto the populous of Wiesenfeuer. Thursday May 9th Baron Aldric will present a class on what is required to submit an event bid and what it takes to run an event. I think this will be good information for anyone who has thought about being an event steward, but was not sure how to go about it. We will meet at the Nature Center at Camp Dakani that evening.

Our meeting on May 23rd will be for garb. If you need to make, mend, get ideas for garb or just socialize, come to Natural Grocers at 7013 N, May.

If there is a class you would interested in attending, please email me and I will try to get it arranged.

In Service to the Dream,

HL Etienett de Bitche

Minister of Arts & Sciences, Barony of Wiesenfeuer

The Flame of Wiesenfeuer

By Elspeth Bhoruma inghean Bhrian (Courtney Creel)

Bring the flame, and bring the fire.

Hold your lanterns higher.

We all have hearts that are brave and pure.

We are born of Wiesenfeuer.

There is a light in Ansteorra.

It shines through darkest night.

The beacon shines with light so pure—

The flame of Wiesenfeuer.

Bring the flame, and bring the fire.

Hold your lanterns higher.

We all have hearts that are brave and pure.

We are born of Wiesenfeuer.

There is a Spark of children growing

Into the brightest fire.

To gain the knowledge and hone the skill

That a Flamme D'Orleans will.

Bring the flame, and bring the fire.

Hold your lanterns higher.

We all have hearts that are brave and pure.

We are born of Wiesenfeuer.

And in defense the Golden Beacon

Stands before us all.

And as they fight the Flint and Steel

Bring service to their call.

Bring the flame, and bring the fire.

Hold your lanterns higher.

We all have hearts that are brave and pure.

We are born of Wiesenfeuer.

The Lanternarius seeks their honor

Among those gone before.

And with their lanterns raised on high

They call to bring down the fire.

Bring the flame, and bring the fire.

Hold your lanterns higher.

We all have hearts that are brave and pure.

We are born of Wiesenfeuer.

Spotlight on Period Literature:

Sonnet XVIII by William Shakespeare

*Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?
Thou art more lovely and more temperate:
Rough winds do shake the darling buds of May,
And summer's lease hath all too short a date:
Sometime too hot the eye of heaven shines,
And often is his gold complexion dimmed,
And every fair from fair sometime declines,
By chance, or nature's changing course untrimmed:
But thy eternal summer shall not fade,
Nor lose possession of that fair thou ow'st,
Nor shall death brag thou wander'st in his shade,
When in eternal lines to time thou grow'st,
So long as men can breathe, or eyes can see,
So long lives this, and this gives life to thee.*
