A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, wood-working, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!

This work is in the public domain in its country of origin and other countries and areas where the copyright term is the author's life plus 100 years or less. This work is in the public domain in the United States because it was published (or registered with the U.S. Copyright Office) before January 1, 1924.

Message from the Herald

Hello to our amazing populace. We have had a great time doing heraldic things this month. A whole bunch of submissions went up to Laurel for consideration.

We had an incredible time teaching folks what the position of baronial herald is all about. King's college had a ton of really amazing heraldic classes.

Then we topped it off with Ansteorra Heraldic and Scribal Symposium at the end of the month. As of the writing and printing of this newsletter the symposium will not have happened. I'm driving down on Friday and coming back on Saturday. If anyone wants to carpool let me know.

Also Firestorm Ink and Scribal is starting up some incredible Arabic scroll design and script classes in July. You should definitely come out and learn about Arabic scrolls. I'm looking forward to it.

Lastly it has been great serving as the baronial herald for the previous few years in one capacity or another. I have learned a lot and I'm amazed all the time on how much there is to still learn.

See you all at populace meeting.

Lord Donnán Ó Néill

Message from the Chronicler

Great Populace of Wiesenfeuer,

Once again I humbly submit to you the finest newsletter this simple chronicler has the capacity to produce. The talent in this barony is unmatched by any populace in the Known World. I implore you to please submit research articles, photographs of your masterful projects, stories, tips cartoons, songs, poems, opinions, how-to articles, and anything else this fine body of experts can presume to imagine.

And don't forget the release form.

In service to the Barony of Wiesenfeuer and the Dream we all share,

HL Lynnette le Long

Message from the Seneschal

Greetings Wiesenfeuer,

The month of July is upon us and with it comes the normal Ansteorra heat and extreme temperatures. Please try your best to stay hydrated when outdoors and take breaks in the shade as much as possible.

This month brings with it the pageantry and prowess of our Kingdoms' Crown tourney. We have many folks from our fair Barony and the Northern Region that are planning on attending and some who are planning on fighting. If possible, please go and support them.

Towards the end of the month we have Pennsic. This is another one of the many "Wars" that Ansteorra goes to and participates in. We wish all of those that plan on attending a safe journey and a safe time.

As of this writing, we have one event bid for Yule Revel. Any other bids need to be submitted to myself, our exchequer, and Their Excellencies no later than our Baronies' Officers' meeting on July 15th.

Long Live the Dream,

HE Aldric de Kerr

Message from the Reeve

We, as a Barony, sponsored an amazing event to help our local herald's get the hands on training that they needed. This type of event has not been done before so we did not know exactly what to expect! Ivo did an amazing job as autocrat and promoting the event (with only 8 weeks lead time!) and we ended up not only getting the initial funds back but about $80 PROFIT! Not to mention a whole new set of heralds that are ready to help and assist in their respective baronies. So the event was a complete success!!!

On to this months financial report. As of May 31, 2019 -

Baronial General Fund $9,312.65

Barony, Archery $560.00

Canton of Haldtre General Fund $369.91

Haldtre, Rapier $152.00

Canton of Myrgenfeld $808.78

Total Funds in Account = $11,203.34

As a reminder - We are at the mid-point of the year. Baronial Officers you need to spend any of the funds related to your office need to be spent, and receipts turned in, by Officer's Meeting in November.

Spotlight on Period Literature:

Whoso That Will All Feats Obtain

By Henry the 8th

Whoso that will all feats obtain
In love he must be without disdain.
For love enforces all noble kind,
And disdain discourages all gentle mind.
Wherefore, to love and be not loved
Is worse than death? Let it be proved!
Love encourages, and makes one bold;
Disdain abates and makes him cold.
Love is given to God and man —
To woman also, I think the same.
But disdain is vice, and should be refused,
Yet nevertheless it is too much used.
Great pity it were, love for to compel
With disdain, both false and subtle.

Yes, this was written by the Henry the 8th we have all heard of. Although I have, as well as my astute readers will notice, he appears not to have followed his own advice.

Meetings and Events

There are many activities within the Barony. Whether you are interested in Fighting, Arts and Sciences, or Just learning about the times and people we are striving to recreate, there is always something to do. Youth Combat

Wednesdays 7pm - 8pm

1441 W Indian Hills Rd Norman, OK

Youth combat is for boys and girls are 6 to 15 years. They fight with foam-padded weapons. There are 3 age divisions within the program; 6-9 years, 10-12 years, and 13-15 years. The armor requirements and the strength of blows allowed increase as a child progresses through the levels.

Beginning Equipment for Youth Combat: Each new youth fighter should wear long pants, a long-sleeve shirt, closed-toe shoes, lightweight gloves, and groin protection. A parent or an adult designated by the parent needs to be present throughout the practice. There is some loaner armor but anything you can provide yourself is helpful. Armor requirements vary by age but all ages will need a helmet with face guard (such as a hockey or lacrosse helmet) and a gorget (medium-weight leather with 1/2 inch closed-cell padding). Knee and elbow pads are required for the older kids and helpful for the younger. The full armor and weapon requirements and rules for combat may be found in the Complete Participants Handbook. This is available on the Kingdom Earl Marshal's website at <http://marshal.ansteorra.org/armored>. Of course feel free to contact your friendly local marshal with any questions.
