A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, wood-working, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!

Message from the Seneschal

Greetings Wiesenfeuer!

The Yule season is upon us and plans for our annual Yule Event are in motion. I hope that many of you will come join us for this laid back event.

The office of Hospitaler is still open for applications. Please consider applying and being a valued part of our officer core.

The office of Seneschal is open until the end of the month of December, 2020. Please consider applying to this position as well. It is one of the required positions for every group

The mundane new year is rapidly approaching and with it comes our Winter Crown and Round table event as well as WinterKingdom in Northkeep.

I would also like to let you know that we are always in the need for potential sites to rent or use for our events and will need a bigger place for Yule in 2020 as it will be the Baronies 30th anniversary. Please let us know if you have any sites that we can check into.

Long live the Dream,

HE Aldric de Kerr

Spotlight on Period Literature:

This Edris Night (15th century carol)

This endris night I saw a sight,
A star as bright as day:
And ever among, a maiden sung,
Lullay, bye bye lullay.

This lovely lady sat and sang,
and to her child did say:
"My son, my brother, father dear
Why liest thou thus in hay?"

The child then spake in his talking
And unto his mother said
"Yes, I am known as heaven-king
In crib though I be laid!"

"Now sweet son, since thou art a king
Why art thou laid in stall?
Why dost not order thy bedding
In some great king's hall?"

"Mother mild, I am thy child
Though I lie among the hay
But nevertheless, do not thou cease
To sing bye bye lullay."

"Now tell, sweet son, how it were done,
How should I keep thee, pray?
And make thee here, glad of cheer
And sing bye bye, lullay."

"That child or man, who will or can
Be merry on my day
To bliss thou bring, and I shall sing
Lullay, bye bye, lullay."
