A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, wood-working, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!

Message from the Seneschal

Greetings Wiesenfeuer!

As the Gregorian calendar shows, another year has passed and we enter a new one with hopes and dreams of the future. It is my hope that our populace has had a restful and joyous holiday season and that they look forward to the possibility of things to come.

January brings us many events, such as our Winter Crown Tourney giving many the chance to vie for the right to be the next Crowns of Ansteorra. Please try to go and show your support if you are able to attend.

Yule went well and we look forward to Yule in the new year as it will be the 30th anniversary of our group achieving Baronial status. We would like to start receiving bids for Yule 2020 now.

As of this writing we have the following offices open for volunteers within the Barony; Hospitiler and Web Minister. If you are interested, see the seneschal for information. We also have a Round Table event which is where folks can go and learn more about becoming seneschal, treasurer, and other areas within our community. This is a great opportunity to learn more about the back end of this game that we play.

We also have WinterKingdom in the Northkeep area and Sable Soldier down near the central part of Texas. Both events provide opportunities to learn new skills.

Long Live the Dream,

Aldric de Kerr

Message from the Chronicler

Greetings, gentle populace of our incomparable barony:

As the new year begins and we experience new adventures in what will be our history all too soon, I implore you to chronicle those adventures for posterity by submitting articles, stories, poems, artwork, etc. to this fine publication.

In service to the Dream,

HL Lynnette Le Long

Message from the Archery Marshal

Greetings!

I hope everyone enjoyed their holidays and received all of the archery supplies they had asked Father Christmas for. Archery Practices in January will all depend on the weather so watch for the announcements about practice.

Wiesenfeuer's Archery practice is open to archers of all skill levels and is on Sunday's between 3 PM and 5 PM at 5102 Woodhollow Dr, Oklahoma City. Children that can listen and follow instructions are also welcome. Remember to wear comfortable clothes and shoes, bring something for hydration and a chair for taking breaks.

For those interested, we do have a Facebook group for the Archers of Wiesenfeuer and Namron called: Firestorm Archers. Any cancellations due to weather or events will be posted to it and the Baronial Facebook page.

In Service,

Isaac Bane

Spotlight on Period Literature:

Shakespeare's Sonnet 5

Those hours that with gentle work did frame
The lovely gaze where every eye doth dwell
Will play the tyrants to the very same
And that unfair which fairly doth excel.
For never-resting time leads summer on
To hideous winter and confounds him there,
Sap checked with frost and lusty leaves quite gone,
Beauty o'er-snowed and bareness everywhere.
Then were not summer's distillation left,
A liquid prisoner pent in walls of glass,
Beauty's effect with beauty were bereft,
Nor it nor no remembrance what it was.
But flowers distilled, though they with winter meet,
Leese but their show; their substance still lives sweet.
