A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, wood-working, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at http:// wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!

This work is in the public domain in its country of origin and other countries and areas where the copyright term is the author's life plus 100 years or less. This work is in the public domain in the United States because it was published (or registered with the U.S. Copyright Office) before January 1, 1924.

Message from our Baronesses

After much soul searching and discussion, HE Valia and I have decided to step down as the Crown's custodians for the Barony of Wiesenfeuer and the Cantons of Myrgenfeld and Haldtre (currently on hiatus). With Their Majesties and Their Highness' permission this transition will take place at our Baronial event held on April 17-19, 2020.

This past year was difficult for both the Barony and ourselves. The Barony remained strong through the losses of Treasured members of the group and they stepped up when the Barony needed them. We have had new faces mixing with old at most every populace meeting and fighter practice. Yule showed us both that the Wiesenfeuer Populace is in a good place, growing, coming up with tons of ideas and excited for the future of the Barony. We could not be any prouder of them.

Valia and I are in a good place now as well and getting better every day. We have plans and ideas as well and we both know there will be times when the mundane and sca worlds will collide.

For us both, we believe now is the time for us to step down and give a new generation the honor to serve this Great Barony of Wiesenfeuer.

We are excited for what comes next both for the Barony and ourselves.

Yours In Service,
Deirdre ni'Raghailigh
Valia of the Mist
Baroness' Wiesenfeuer

This work is in the public domain in its country of origin and other countries and areas where the copyright term is the author's life plus 70 years or fewer.

Greetings to the People of Wiesenfeuer!

Your current Baronesses, Valia of the Mists and Deirdre Ni' Raghailigh, have announced their intention to step down during the next Wiesenfeuer Baronial. After consulting with them, your Seneschal, and their Highnesses, they have agreed to mt prepared schedule. This is tight, aggressive schedule with Gulf Wars right in the center that allows time for the new landed nobility to prepare for their investiture.

- Thursday, January 23 (one and a half months before the polling): A digital mailing list and social media post is released to discuss the polling process and encourage candidates to submit letters of intent.
- Thursday, February 06 (two weeks later): This is the deadline to declare baronial candidate status—no new entrants are allowed after this date. Final letters of intent by baronial candidates are due to the Crown and Heirs by email.
- Monday, February 10 (within 5 days): The final opinion poll form with candidate names is posted to the baronial website. Brief, single-page candidate letters with full contact information are also posted to the website.
- Saturday, February 15. All baronial candidates meet one-on-one with the Crown and Heirs at Mooneschadowe - Provincial Games (February 15).
- Thursday, February 20: The Special edition of the baronial newsletter, The Flamebearer is published. It includes the final opinion poll form with the names and candidate letters of the baronial candidates, the same as found on the baronial website. The newsletter must be in everyone's hands at least one week before the official polling. This newsletter will be cross posted online to maximize distribution.
- Monday, February 24 (one week before the polling): Have you sent an email to the Crown with your commentary about the baronial candidates? If not, do so right away.
- Monday, March 2: The Big Day. Polling occurs during the regular populace meeting, 7:30pm at Ingrid's, 3701 N Youngs Blvd, Oklahoma City, OK 73112. The Regional Seneschal will be there to conduct the polling.
- Monday, March 9 (one week later): All absentee opinion polls are due by email to the Kingdom Seneschal. All email with commentary about the baronial candidates is due to the Crown and Heirs.
- Monday, March 30 (Three weeks before Baronial): The Crown announce their final decision. This is to allow them enough time to read each and every one of the opinion poll forms and commentary emails.
- Saturday, April 18 (Wiesenfeuer Baronial): Their Majesties officially invest the new Landed Nobility. This is a big occasion and the populace is urged to attend to lend their support to their new Landed Nobility.

Now for the fine print: This schedule is subject to change at the will of the Crown. Each candidate is responsible for ensuring that they meet the application deadlines and requirements. All the general populace is tasked with keeping themselves informed of the process and providing constructive input to the crown. I will try to post a few days before each deadline to help serve as reminders.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns during this transition.

Charles the Grey of Mooneschadowe
Northern Seneschal

Message from the Seneschal

Greetings Wiesenfeuer!

The month of January has passed quickly and there have been some recent changes within the Barony. First, as many of you may have seen on Facebook, Their Excellencies Valia and Deirdre have announced that they are stepping down as Baroness, and Baroness of Wiesenfeuer. I have no words to properly express the gratitude and love I have for these two. They have both done excellent jobs of guiding our Barony and doing it through various difficulties while dealing with their own sorrows brought by losses of close friends and close acquaintances.

The Northern Regional Seneschal has sent out the process that we will follow to provide feedback to the Crown while they work on making their choice for the next B&B. Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

After reviewing the applications that were submitted for the Seneschal's office, the Northern Regional Seneschal has chosen Don Elric Dracwin to be the next seneschal of our group. Don Elric has held this position previously, but I will be working with him to make sure he is ready to take over after our event in April, which is when I plan on stepping down as seneschal.

We have had one application for the office of Hospitaler. After speaking with the Northern Regional Hospitaler and Their Excellency, I am happy to announce that Cainnear Lylle (Katherine Schaeffer) has been appointed to this office. Please help me in welcoming her and help her as much as you can.

At the time of our annual Yule event in December, our Barony will be celebrating its 30th year of reaching Baronial Status. In order to try to start planning the celebration, we are now accepting event bids. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Long Live the Dream,

HE Aldric de Kerr

Wiesenfeuer Seneschal

Message from the Chronicler

Greetings, good and gentle populace of our ever transforming and advancing barony:

As you read this issue of the Flamebearer, bear in mind that this is your newsletter. You play this game for a reason. Share the passion you have for the dream and what it means to you with other dreamers both new and seasoned. Please submit articles, artwork, words of beauty, wisdom or war, and all other publishable material.

In service to the Dream,

HL Lynnette Le Long

of war.

Message from the Archery Marshal

Greetings!

Mother Nature treated us well during the month of January, allowing us to have three practices. There has been 6 to 7 Archers at each of the January practices.

At Winter Roundtable there were several great conversations in the Missile Community meeting. One was on getting more people authorized to marshal in all of the missile fields, so that is one thing I'm going to try and do this year. This will allow a more diverse practice. Also, the Combat Archery rules for the Rapier community are still in the works.

Wiesenfeuer's Archery practice is open to archers of all skill levels and is on Sunday's between 3 PM and 5 PM at 5102 Woodhollow Dr, Oklahoma City. Children that can listen and follow instructions are also welcome. Remember to wear comfortable clothes and shoes, bring something for hydration and a chair for taking breaks.

For those interested, we do have a Facebook group for the Archers of Wiesenfeuer and Namron called: Firestorm Archers. Any cancellations due to weather or events will be posted to it and the Baronial Facebook page.

In Service,

Isaac Bane

Message from the Reeve

End of the year reports are done. Officer budgets are in the linked spreadsheets. Officers if you need help finding this please let me know and I will be glad to help you! This is a way you can easily keep track of your budget and where you stand throughout the year.

It is time to think about events this year! We have Baronial in just a few months and we are currently looking for a site, event steward, and feast steward for this event. It will be the 30th Anniversary of our Barony!

Included in the newsletter this month is the annual financial statement for the Barony. If anyone has any questions or concerns please see or contact me! I would be happy to explain. It is in the format of a business financial report and does not show the balance on the account so please do not panic! (It basically says last year we took in more than we spent as a group. WOOHOO!!!)

As of 12/31/2019 the balance for our account were:

- Barony of Wiesenfeuer - $10,263.53

- Canton of Myrgenfeld - $878.37

-Canton of Haldtre - $663.91

- TOTAL BALANCE $11801.81

Note: As on 12/31/2019 - all designated byline items had been retired to their respective general funds.

The twelve properties or conditions of a lover.

Sir Thomas More (1478-1535)

To love one alone, and contempne al other for that one.

To thinke him vnhappy, that is not with his love.

To adourne himself for the pleasure of his love.

To suffer all thyng, though it were death, to be with his love.

To desyre also to suffer shame harme for his love, and to thynke that hurt swete.

To be with his love euer, as he maye, if not in dede, yet in thought.

To love all thyng that pertayneth vnto his love.

To coueit the praise of his love, and not to suffer any dispraise.

To beleue of his love al thynges excellent, and to desyre that al folk should thynke the same.

To wepe often with his love, in presence for ioy, in absence for sorow,

To languish euer and euer to burne in the desire of his love.

To serue his love, nothing thinking of any rewarde or profite.

We offer assistance in both techniques and the history of creating medieval manuscripts so those skills can improve the SCA experience for award recipients & champions of local competition. Loaner paints and brushes available. No fees are collected unless you want to take/keep the paint.

Youth Combat

Wednesdays 7pm - 8pm

1441 W Indian Hills Rd Norman, OK (Please check the barony's Facebook page, as the location is subject to change.)

Youth combat is for boys and girls are 6 to 15 years. They fight with foam-padded weapons. There are 3 age divisions within the program; 6-9 years, 10-12 years, and 13-15 years. The armor requirements and the strength of blows allowed increase as a child progresses through the levels.

Beginning Equipment for Youth Combat: Each new youth fighter should wear long pants, a long-sleeve shirt, closed-toe shoes, lightweight gloves, and groin protection. A parent or an adult designated by the parent needs to be present throughout the practice. There is some loaner armor but anything you can provide yourself is helpful. Armor requirements vary by age but all ages will need a helmet with face guard (such as a hockey or lacrosse helmet) and a gorget (medium-weight leather with 1/2 inch closed-cell padding). Knee and elbow pads are required for the older kids and helpful for the younger. The full armor and weapon requirements and rules for combat may be found in the Complete Participants Handbook. This is available on the Kingdom Earl Marshal's website at <http://marshal.ansteorra.org/armored>. Of course feel free to contact your friendly local marshal with any questions.
