A Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, wood-working, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaler at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!

This work is in the public domain in its country of origin and other countries and areas where the copyright term is the author's life plus 100 years or less. This work is in the public domain in the United States because it was published (or registered with the U.S. Copyright Office) before January 1, 1924.

Message from the Archery Marshal

Greetings!

During the month of February we were able to hold two target archery practices. We had seven archers at each practice with several spectators in attendance as well.

Wiesenfeuer's Archery practice is open to archers of all skill levels and is on Sunday's between 3 PM and 5 PM at 5102 Woodhollow Dr, Oklahoma City. Children that can listen and follow instructions are also welcome. Remember to wear comfortable clothes and shoes, bring something for hydration and a chair for taking breaks.

For those interested, we do have a Facebook group for the Archers of Wiesenfeuer and Namron called: Firestorm Archers. Any cancellations due to weather or events will be posted to it and the Baronial Facebook page.

In Service,

Isaac Bane

Spotlight on Period Literature:

Excerpt from Y Gododdin-Aneirin
A collection of praise for brave warriors

XVII

Support in the front line,
Sunlight on the grass:
Where can heaven's lord
of Britain be found?
Ford roiled by his rush,
Shield for a shelter.
Resplendent the lord
In Eidin's great hall,
Grandeur his glory.
His mead made men drunk;
He drank vintage wine.
A reaper in War,
He drank the sweet wine.
Mind bent on battle,
He reaped battle's leeks.
Battle's bright band
Sang a battle song
Armed for battle,
Battle's pinions,
His shield was sheared thin
By spears in the strife.
Comrades were fallen
In battle-harness.
Stirring his war-cry,
Faultless his service,
Spellbound his frenzy,
Before green covered
Gwrfelling Fras' grave.
