Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation-based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved.

So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our hospitaller at <http://wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org>. Welcome to Wiesenfeuer

Message from the Baronesses

Greetings unto the Barony of Wiesenfeuer, our Cantons of Haldtre and Myrgenfeld, and all interested gentles.

We look forward to your presence at our Virtual Event The Weasel in Spring. It should be a lot of fun and have something interesting for everyone.

There will be a Royal Court in conjunction with the Virtual Baronial event and we encourage everyone to tune in!

With the announcement from the BoD that in person activities are going to start happening, I know we are not the only one feeling excited and anticipating the fun and friendship that is the cornerstone of our organization. We would just like to remind everyone that there is still a plague out there and to remain vigilant and be safe so that hopefully the restrictions we will be operating under will be able to be lifted soon.

We would urge everyone to read the announcement from the Board of Directors yourself.

We know finding the spark of the dream can be especially difficult these days and want you to know we are in this together. As your Baroness' we always have an open door for you, please do not hesitate to reach out if you need us with your thoughts, concerns, or even if you just need a sympathetic ear. Wiesenfeuer's current COVID numbers continue to show hope that we may be able to be together in person soon. We encourage you to continue to follow CDC guidelines so that we can all help speed this along together.

Message from the Archery Marshal

Greetings,

A big thank you to Lord Matteo for the donation of three sets of six arrows to add to our loaner gear.

It looks like things are calming down enough that the Barony is starting to get to the point that we can have activities again. We had one practice in March. Thank you to those archers that came out and shot. There will be no archery practice Sunday April 4th due to it being Easter.

When the Barony is at phase one or better and weather cooperates, archery practice will be from 3 PM to 5 PM on Sundays, at 5102 Woodhollow Rd, OKC.

Targets will be set up for both regular target archery and combat target archery. As well as a Royal Round Shoot for those interested.

All practices will be following the guidelines of the Ansteorra Martial Practices Reopen Plan. There is an Ansteorra Health Screening Questionnaire that everyone will have to acknowledge. Every person at practice will be wearing a face mask (covering the mouth and nose) and practicing the best social distancing practices. There is NO access to a restroom on site.

If you have any questions please feel free to email me at Archery@Wiesenfeuer.Ansteorra.org
In Service,
Isaac Bane

Message from the Arts and Sciences Minister

Greetings,

This last month we had a class on Fingerloop Braiding, taught by Masina Da Ferrara. If you missed it there are 2 handouts for the class that are posted in files on the Wiesenfeuer Arts & Sciences Facebook page. If you need help with finding more resources on this or other topics let me know.

We had two Virtual, Open A&S Classes in March. We always have a great time chatting and working on projects. We will be having a couple more Virtual Open A&S in April, please join us. It is a great time to chat and work on a project, everyone is always welcome.

Coming up in April we will be having an online class on Painted Jewels and Pearls in Illumination, taught by Lady Aline Hopton. This class will be held on April 8th via Zoom. I will post the link the day of.

If you have any classes that you would like to see let me know and I'll work on getting them scheduled. I'm looking forward to this summer when we open up and can start having classes and meetings in person again.

Keep an eye on the Wiesenfeuer and the Wiesenfeuer Arts & Sciences Facebook pages for more announcements.
