Statement from the Members of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman Medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making of instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation-based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved.

So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or visit our website to learn more @ <https://ansteorra.org/wiesenfeuer/>. Want to talk to someone? Email our hospitaler at hospitaler@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer

Message from the Seneschal

Greetings to the Populace of Wiesenfeuer,

I am Lady Eadwyn seo Gathyrde the seneschal of Wiesenfeuer.

I want to say welcome to our new Social Media Officer, Torianna Thornhil. She has done some great Tiktok videos and if you are not following Wiesenfeuer you should. There are a lot of things happening in July, Coronation will be the 9th and later that month on July 23rd, Medieval Learning Day, we will be having demos and demonstrations. We will also need people that just want to come out dressed in garb to chat and answer questions. If you want to help, please contact myself or Kaethe Fridrich the A&S Minister.

I have posted a bunch of workdays through the end of the year to get our baronial equipment repaired and shiny again.

There are also a lot of activities and guild meetings going on every month, so be on the lookout for those on Facebook and Discord.

In August, Wiesenfeuer is hosting Vindheim Missile Academy, which will be happening on Aug 27th at Cottenwood Flats. Matteo de Genua is the autocrat, his co-autocrat is Gwenyvere Rose Foxe, if you would like to teach or help in any way reach out to them or myself and we will get you signed up.

Bids are open for an autocrat for Yule, and the site is Quail Spring Methodist Church. If this is something you are interested in or have any questions, please reach out to me or their Excellencies. You do not need to be an experienced autocrat to run this event, there are a lot of people that will be there for support.

If you ever have any questions or concerns about anything, please reach out to me. I am on Facebook, Discord and my phone is published in this newsletter. I am always a listening ear and I want to make sure that people are heard and feel comfortable in this group.

In Service,
Eadwyn seo Gathyrde

Message from the Thrown Weapons

Greetings All,

Practice has been going well with 6 to 10 people participating during this past hotter month. Thrown weapons is open to all ages as long as you can follow safety rules. And, a big thank you to Matteo for his continued support of all things missile with his donation of more throwing axes and knives to the Barony.

Thrown weapons practice is from 5 PM to 7 PM on Sundays at 5102 Woodhollow Rd. There is no restroom on site, but there is Braums within about five minutes of our location. Please wear footwear for uneven ground and potentially tall grass. This year is also proving bad for ticks, so please take precautions to keep the bugs away.

Vindheim Missile Academy event is coming up fast. Please be on the look out for a sign up sheet for range marshals and mentors to help people improve while throwing. The academy is starting the shape up nicely, but there's always room for more volunteers.

In Service,
Isaac Bane

Message from the Chronicler

Greetings!

I would love to feature your original art, classes, SCA related photos or even your small doodles. This is your newsletter and I really want to see you reflected in it. If you have anything you would like to share, feel free to email me at the Chronicler email and we can talk. Thank you to Gwenyvere Rose Foxe for volunteering to be my deputy!

Message from the Candelaio

Greetings unto the Barony.

As we move into the summer, we have an outstanding heraldic event that is both free, and hosted by the Principality of Vindheim. The Known World Heraldic and Scribal Symposium will be starting on July the 21st, and will have classes all online, around the clock (24 hours a day is the target) and from around the known world, through July 24th. This will be the single best place for new and experienced heralds and scribes, anywhere in the SCA, to have access to some of the best instructors the society has to offer. You can find a link to the event on the kingdom calendar. And you can type it in from here as well:

<https://sites.google.com/view/kwhss/home>

In more local news, as always I and my deputies are glad to assist with research in personal names and arms that you might want to register within the SCA for your own personal use, and display. If you do have any questions, or have an idea you want to look into, feel free to reach out to me in person, by email, or on social media.

TRIVIA: While most historically monarchical nations still have an office or college of heralds, did you know that the United States Army has an office to keep track of its heraldry? Its called The Institute Of Heraldry, and they register the insignia of all of the units in the US Army. You can visit their Website at TIOH.ARMY.MIL, or goggle "US Army Institute Of heraldry". While modern army heraldry does not follow the same rules as historical heraldry, the Institute serves much the same role as the SCA's College of arms. It is responsible for creating, registering, and directing the use of unique unit emblems for all units within the US Army, as well as offering the same services for all civilian offices of the US Federal Government, and the office of the President of the United States. The Institute was founded in 1960, and currently employs 22 civilian DoD members in its office in Fort Belvoir, Virginia.
