Welcome!

You might have heard of us from a friend, found one of our videos on TikTok, stumbled upon us on Facebook, seen us at the local library, the Norman Medieval Fair, or any number of local demonstrations. Regardless of how you've found us, we're glad you are here!

The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is part of an international organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). Our organization is dedicated to being an inclusive community pursuing the research and re-creation of pre-seventeenth century skills, arts, combat and culture from all over the world. The lives of participants are enriched as we gain knowledge of history through activities, demonstrations, and events.

The “arts and skills” of the pre-seventeenth centuries are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter, to making instruments, woodworking, illumination and much, much more. Anything that was made or done in this time frame is fair game. Skills include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in over six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation-based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Try any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were done centuries ago. Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The SCA is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or visit our website to learn more at <https://ansteorra.org/wiesenfeuer/>. Want to talk to someone? Email our hospitaler at hospitaler@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer!

A Word from Their Excellencies

reetings Wiesenfeuer,

July has been a busy month of learning new things. King's College was a lot of fun and a great success. Round Table followed the next weekend and officers old and new learned a few things and got warranted.

A group from Wiesenfeuer went down to the Kingdom Marshal Practice and Social Gathering in the Central Region. New things were learned, new friends made and they got to shoot pointy things down range. They even managed to find all of their arrows and bolts before returning home.

We finished off the month with the Herald's Retreat, it was great seeing everyone there and learning all the things that come with being a herald.

Just like every month August promises to bring more fun things. Water Wars is coming up the second weekend of August where we get to soak each other with water balloons and just hang out and have fun.

We are looking at doing another painting on pavilion day in August, date to be determined.

Looking farther ahead we are planning on having Wiesenfeuer camp together at Mooneschadowe Trade Days, September 29th to October 1st and at Namron Protectorate October 6th to 8th. Keep an eye out for future camping together opportunities.

Our itinerary for August include:

August 5th - Steppes Artisan hosted by Steppes (Baroness)

August 12th - Water Wars hosted by Namron & Wiesenfeuer (Both)

August 26th - Glasyn Artisan hosted by Glasyn (undecided)

SENECHAL

Greetings unto the Barony of Wiesenfeuer,

July was an extra busy, but wonderful month for the Barony. Congratulations and thank you to all those who helped to make King's College and Herald's Retreat each a great success.

We have a new Officer. I am pleased to announce the appointment of our Thrown Weapons Marshal, Ian Thornhill.

We should hopefully be announcing a new Hospitler, Minister of Arts and Sciences, and Minister of Children very soon. Our sincerest thank you to Etienett De Bitche and to Mariella Magdalena di Guilio for your service to your respective offices and for all your hard work.

We have several officer positions open currently and more opening in the next few months, so if an officer position sounds interesting or fun, feel free to reach out to that officer and ask how you can help or be a deputy to start learning the ropes!

August brings the return of Water Wars! Full details will be available very soon, so mark your calendar for Saturday, August 12, 2023.

Event, Tavern, and Feast bids are open for Wiesenfeuer Baronial. If you have any questions, please reach out to me or their Excellencies.

We are still seeing those Summer temperatures. Please stay safe, hydrate, and keep an eye to social media for announcements regarding practice cancellations.

Planning for Yule will soon be underway, so be on the lookout for further announcements. Her Excellency Muirenn Ingen Chernaig, with Torianna Thornhill, and Phillippa will be coordinating the event while Nicaise Synger with Lillias MacGuffin will be making an Indian feast.

As always, keep an eye out for work days, events, and other activities on Facebook and Discord.

If you ever have any questions or concerns about anything, please reach out to me. I am on Facebook and my phone number is published in this newsletter.

In Service,

Lady Lyra

HERALD (CANDELAIO)

This month we've been thoroughly engrossed in preparing both the Herald's Professional Retreat and the new 2023 version of the Unofficial Ansteorran Local Heralds Training & Resource Textbook.

We had many of the best and brightest heralds from around the kingdom come together to share their knowledge to create this textbook, including Duke Abd al-Mahdi Jamal ibn Hakim; the Star Principal Herald, Annais Eleanor de Montgomerie; the Asterisk Herald, Sigrun í Biarká Sveinungsdóttir; the Tressure Herald, Valeria Marcella De'Martinez; their Sanguin Highness' Herald, Ettiene de Saint Amarnath, among many others. Our very own Candeliao, Ivo Blackhawk headed and managed this project, and our Web Minister Lillias MacGuffin served as the Curriculum Specialist. I know it's a long list of names and titles, but this is simply to show the extent of the knowledge and effort that went into creating the most comprehensive text of heraldic knowledge to exist. It is available online and free to all who wish to peruse it. You can find it at <https://sites.google.com/view/the-textbookproject/home>.

Many of those same people who contributed to the textbook also taught at the Herald's Professional Development Retreat, which will have already happened by the time this newsletter comes out. People from all over the kingdom came to Wiesenfeuer to participate in the courses that taught all of the knowledge and skills collated in the textbook, giving beginners and intermediate heralds hands on experience. This event has been the product of everyone's hard work, so it's my hope that everyone who joined it enjoyed themselves and will carry their knowledge with them wherever they go.

Again, a special thanks to everyone who has helped in writing the textbook and teaching classes. We couldn't have accomplished any of this without you.

For more information on how the Herald's Retreat went, please see it's summary under the "What's Been Happening" section of this newsletter.

In sweetest regard,

Guinevere Llewellyn
Deputy Herald

Ivo Blackhawk
Candeliao Herald

Bon'jour to the firey populace of Wiesenfeuer!

In other news, we will soon be selecting a new financial committee member, and then we will focus on our annual Yule event. I will be hosting a Christmas cookie contest and bake sale that day in order to raise funds for Baronial Banners and a table setting for the Vindhiem royals. I hope to see many participants and will get more information out soon.

ARCHERY MARSHAL

Greetings,

Despite Vindheim's crazy weather, Wiesenfeuer's missile community has remained strong, with veteran missileers and rookies both making their presence felt.

My time as Archery Marshal is rapidly drawing to an end and thus my office is now open for applications. Those who are interested can send their application in to the Kingdom Missile Deputy-Target Archery. Please cc Their Excellencies and the Seneschal when you send in the application.

As we look toward the end of summer, we will prepare to transition from our summer hours to our winter hours. This transition usually occurs in September. More information will come out then.

I want to thank everyone for all the work they have put in to help me make Wiesenfeuer's Archery Program the spectacular success that it is. And to whoever replaces me as the Marshal, best wishes, and don't ever be too proud to admit if you need help.

On further note, I hope to see a Second Vindheim Missile Academy next year.

Glory to the Crown.

FIRESTORM INK SCRIBAL GUILD

Firestorm Ink is the scribal guild for the baronies of Namron and Wiesenfeuer. We are a group of people, in the Norman and Oklahoma City Metro area, that meet weekly to learn and practice the various skills that went into making medieval manuscripts, such as calligraphy, painting, gilding, making paints from pigments, and book binding.

Most of the art we produce is used to recognize the achievements of our fellow members across Ansteorra (Texas and Oklahoma). We create both completely original pieces and also have preprinted sheets ready to be painted. Supplies are generally available to help people get started.

We meet in person the first Tuesday of each month at the Natural Grocers at SW 89th and Penn in Oklahoma City. The other Tuesdays we meet virtually via google meet. Everyone is welcome to attend our meetings, you don't have to be interested in our activities to hang out. The link to the google meet meeting is posted 30 to 60 minutes before the start of the meeting on Facebook and Discord. If you would like a link to the meeting sent to you please contact Isaac Bane at isaacbane (at) gmail.com. Please put "Firestorm Ink Meeting Link request" in the Subject line of the email.

As of now, I am NOT planning a Guild Meeting for June as I am in the process of buying a house and moving. However, should someone else be willing to host, I'm willing to put a meeting/brew day together.

ANSTEORRA'S KING'S COLLEGE

King's College this year was hosted by a fabulous team out of our very own Wiesenfeuer. A hundred more scadians attended than expected but that didn't stop Wiesenfeuer from putting on a magnificent event!

There were more than 65 classes to gain knowledge from, including a medallion casting class taught by HL Ivo Blackhawk, a meaty rapier demonstration from HE Don Elric Dracwin, and a mead making class taught by Kassandra de Haas. There were also numerous childrens activities and a delicious lunch provided by the Knotty Squirrel Tavern!

THE HERALD'S RETREAT

The Herald's Professional Development Retreat happened on Saturday the 29th of July. This is the second time the event has happened, but the first time since COVID and the radical changes the society have undergone during and after the lockdown. We had 21 attendees, including the incoming head of Heraldic Training From the Kingdom of Meridies, Ansteorra's own head of Heraldic Training, and Star Principal herald, the head of Ansteorra's college of heralds. Our attendees included both local members, and people from as far away as Bryn Gwlad (Austin, TX), and Bonwicke (Lubbock, TX). Classes ran for 8 hours, and we ended the day with a Rock-paper-scissors tournament and a baronial court.

For what we set out to do, which was to improve the level of heraldic education, the event did exactly what we needed it to, and was a spectacular success. The college of heralds is already making plans to repeat the event in the future, and make it a regular part of the kingdom's heraldic education.

Ash & Moon

Earth, Moon, and Sky
Blessed be your path
In the dawn, you wonder why
Trials come to pass
Let the road be your guide
No matter where it be
May all your mysteries unwind
Into eternity

The lips to your ears
Whispering fate
The whisper of fears
Gone with no trace
Let joy be your power
And courage your strength
Your soul is a tower
With no time to waste

From ash to mountain
Shadow unfurls
With actions accounted
As you change the world
Let dawn be your hearthfire

And dusk be your veil
As here you aspire
With your tale to tell

The shadow of moon
The light of the star
The journey of greatness
Will take you afar
Legends may come true
If brought to the fore
See how you pull through
Like never before

Then & Now

by HL ETIENNETT DE BITCHE

I have noticed something since we started having events after Covid. What I have noticed is the change in the way we event. Something I think newcomers are missing.

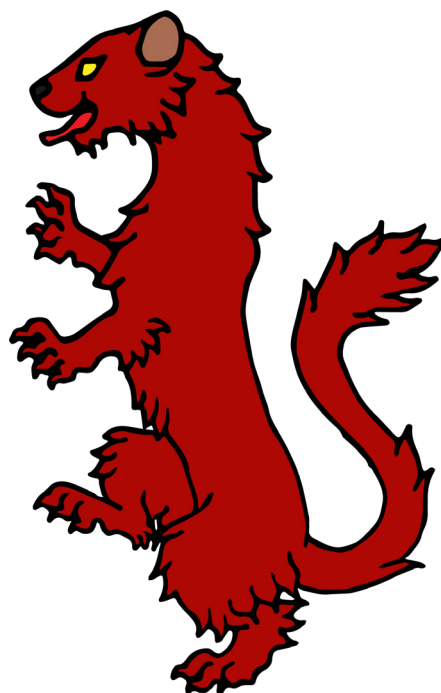

During my many years in the SCA, an event started on Friday evening and continued until Sunday morning. We would arrive at the event site whenever we could on Friday, set up camp, then, if not too late, visit with others already there or help those arriving set up and visit. It was a casual time that allowed for lengthy conversations with old and new friends. It was a time to ease out of our mundane lives and begin stepping back in time. Saturday morning we would get up, have breakfast, then begin a day full of various activities: Opening court, tournament, Arts & Science display or competition, feast or dinner break, and evening court among other activities.

Evening was when you partied, alcohol not being necessary. Whether it was a casual bardic circle with singing, stories and toasts, Middle Eastern drumming and dance, or, those of age, drinking with their friends in a place where they didn't have to worry about driving home. If someone was too deep in his cups and passed out along the path, someone would see that they were, at least, covered up. (We always take care of each other.) I had so many "perfect moments" during those evenings then I ever had in my mundane life. I always loved going to bed and hearing laughter and drumming and the quiet murmur of people talking. Did I mention laughter?

Then, Sunday morning came the sad part of the event when we all had to pack up and go back to the mundane world with its trials and tribulations. We were always reluctant to leave that world and the friends we enjoyed during the weekend.

Since Covid it seems many people only day-trip and miss the Saturday night comradeship. I find this to be a sad thing for all and, especially, for our newer members. I sincerely hope that we can begin to get back to a full weekend of stepping back in time.

Oxymel / Switchel / Posca Roman Heat Juice

Posca was a popular drink in ancient Rome and Greece, made by mixing sour wine or vinegar with water and flavouring herbs. It originated in Greece as a medicinal mixture but became an everyday drink for the Roman army and the lower classes from around the 2nd century BC, continuing to be used throughout Roman history and into the Byzantine period. Soldiers were given a (vinegar) wine ration that was mixed with water. The wine was watered down as soldiers were not allowed to have full wine. The acidity of the vinegar would help kill bacteria in the water. This drink was used to refresh and hydrate the troops and to help keep the water safe.

2 cups water
2 cups raw honey
1 cup wine vinegar (you can use apple cider vinegar, but don't use white vinegar)
Flavor optional (ginger, mint)

Combine Water and raw unfiltered Honey. Bring to a boil. Add Wine Vinegar. Reduce to a simmer and simmer for 30 minutes. If you want to help with hydration, you can add some salt. Cool and bottle. You can use it without any additional flavoring, or you can use different herbs to flavor.

IF you are going to use ginger root, peel and slice the ginger and add with the vinegar. If you use mint, fresh, loose leaf or tea bag, add after you have removed the syrup from heat. If you wish to use any other herb, handle it the same way as the mint. After the syrup is cool strain out the herbs / root and the bottle. You can store this in the open / on the shelf or in the fridge.

To use : add to water and drink. General ratio is 1 part concentrate to 7-10 parts water

Skanjabeen / Sekanjabin
This is often called the Persian Mint Drink / Tea at events
2 1/2 cups water
4 cups sugar
Wine or apple cider vinegar
Mint

Combine water and sugar and bring to a boil. Add vinegar. Simmer for 30 min. Remove from heat and add 1 spring fresh mint or dried mint. When cool strain and dilute to taste. This must be stored in the fridge due to the high sugar amount. And it will mold quickly once mixed.

These recipes are from the Myrgenfeld/ Wiesenfeuer Herbal Guild.

THE INCONCEIVABLE LEGEND OF WEASELTON: PART 2

By Lady Gwennyvere Rose Foxe

As the rooster crowed Weaselton's eyes fluttered open to the sun gently peeking through the window. He sat up, stretched and gave a big yawn. Today was another day, and it will be a good one.

Weaselton got up, got dressed, made his bed, then went down the creaky, wooden stairs to the kitchen. There, he found the Lady of the house busily making breakfast, the smell of eggs and toast filled the air.

"Oh, good! You're awake! If I remember right, your favorite food was eggs, so I made you some!" The Lady, who was dressed in soft yellow flower-patterned dress with her hair tied up with a delicately patterned scarf, set a plate of eggs in front of him as he sat down at the dining table. It had only been a few days since his arrival and Lady Beatrix was the kindest soul he had ever met. She took him in the first night and he would never forget her generosity.

"Thank you so much! Yes, I love eggs!" Weaselton picked up a fork and began to dig in. "What are your plans for the day?" He said through full, puffed cheeks.

"Oh I'm not sure. I've thought about making some beads or baking something tasty. But while we are on the subject, someone came by asking for you. They needed help with something important."

"Oh? Do you remember who it was or what they needed?"

"I believe it was Lord Klauss, I think he needed you to help him find something. Seems he lost it."

"Great!" Weaselton finished his eggs and stood up with earnest. "I will be on my way then! Thank you, Miss Bea!"

With a wave Weaselton set off out the door and into the bright light of the sun. Around him he could see the hustle and bustle of the town around him. He made his way down the road, passing shops and market vendors where customers were picking out any goods they needed. Soon, he came upon a cozy little shop with a music note hanging outside the door. As he opened the door, a whimsical chime went off that echoed throughout the lavish room which was filled with velvet chairs covered with varied instruments and papers filled with writings.

"Just a minute!" Klauss rang out, followed by the sound of an assortment of objects being bumped or knocked over. Not too long after, a kind man appeared with a curled moustache wearing a yellow buttoned vest and a lavish, green velvet cape.

"Good morning, Weaselton! You're so kind to come over so quickly! I am in quite dire straights! You see, I have lost my muse! I have no idea where she could've gone. Can you help me find her again?"

Weaselton bowed ever so graciously. "It would be my honor! Where shall we start?"

Baronial Event Bids Are OPEN!

Our Wiesenfeuer Baronial event is scheduled for April 19-21, 2024. We are planning on using the Will Rogers Boy Scout Camp in Cleveland, Oklahoma. We are penciled in on their calendar, and still working on the paperwork.

We are now accepting bids for Event Steward, for Tavern, as well as a separate budget and plan for a Feast.

Bids are due by SEPTEMBER 22, 2023 at 8:00 pm.

This is so that we can discuss them with the financial committee at the end of September, and have a decision by October's Populace meeting.

If you have an idea for a feast, tavern, or wish to serve as an event steward for Baronial, please submit a bid by email to:

Their Excellencies at baron@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org and baroness@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org. The treasurer at treasurer@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org, as well as the Senechal at seneschal@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org.

To the Barony of Wiesenfeuer, greetings!

Have you ever wondered, "Who, or what, is that?" and then browsed the internet to look up a person, place, event, thing, or concept on Wikipedia? Wikipedia isn't solely a website, it's also a collaborative software that any group can use to create its own knowledgebase. Ansteorra has its very own Wiki with over 1,200 pages! The Ansteorra Wiki is the publicly accessible records of the Kingdom Historian's office, documenting the people, places, events, and traditions of our Kingdom. This can be a great way to learn about households, individuals, guilds, awards, specific Reigns - you name it. You can browse via categories of information, or search for a specific page. Anyone who lives or has lived and participated in Ansteorra is eligible to have a People of Ansteorra page. On it, you can chronicle your SCA experience to the extent and depth that you are comfortable doing. We can track your service and participation, host photos of A&S projects, and notate your wishes in circumstances where you might be called into court. Over 500 Ansteorran already have a People page-- Visit <http://historian.ansteorra.org/wiki/index.php?title=Category:People> to see them.

So much of the SCA is a shared, communal experience, but much of our history is lost, because it is not recorded. There are so many stories to tell - and the Ansteorran Wiki is a beautiful place to share them and preserve them. Wiesenfeuer has a page on the wiki -- but only a tiny smidge of information about its rich history. (<https://historian.ansteorra.org/wiki/index.php?title=Wiesenfeuer>) Won't you share YOUR stories of Wiesenfeuer's history and events - large and small - with the rest of the Kingdom?

You are also invited to become a wiki contributor or editor. Contributing content to the wiki is much, much easier than you think. If you can type an email, you can contribute to the wiki. Content you could share can be as varied as snippets of information about those living or passed who have inspired you (Populace Provided Information), "No (bleep), there I was!" stories, photographs, songs, poems... nearly anything you can imagine!

Having your own page built on the wiki is as easy as filling out an online form (<http://historian.ansteorra.org/submission.php>) and attaching a few photos (though please take a moment to ensure they are less than 1 MG in size first, or they won't attach properly, and rename as YourSCAName - Portrait). Updating an existing page is easy, too! You can either utilize the online form again, filling out only the sections that have been changed (If you use this method: in the SCA Name field, type (Your Name) - Update, and that will let me know it's a page update), or you can use the message form on the main Historian's site: <https://ansteorra.org/historian/>. In the Subject field, type (Your Name) - Update, and then add the information you want updated. I'm also happy to have information sent to me directly via the email address. I prefer not to receive updates via Facebook Messenger, as it's hard for me to keep track of what I have actioned or not.

The King of England once banned ball games in London. On April 13, 1314 King Edward II issued a proclamation “...there is great noise in the city caused by hustling over large balls from which many evils may arise which God forbid; we command and forbid, on behalf of the King, on pain of imprisonment, such game to be used in the city in the future.”
