Welcome

A group known as the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) includes the Barony of Wiesenfeuer.

Our group is committed to being an inclusive community that studies and recreates pre-seventeenth-century arts, warfare, skills, and culture from all over the world.

Participants' lives are enhanced as we learn about history through events, activities, and demonstrations.

The breadth and depth of the "arts and skills" of the pre-seventeenth century are immense.

The arts encompass a wide range of activities, such as creating instruments, leatherwork, calligraphy, and much more.

Everything created or accomplished during this time period is free game.

Throughout more than six hundred years of history, people have practiced and played a wide variety of games and talents, such as fighting, fencing, archery, throwing weapons, and much more.

The SCA is a participatory, hands-on historical education method. Learn to fire a bow like Robin Hood, or hit your (armored) buddies with sticks. Try a variety of handicrafts made by people who have honed their skills and methods for creating things the way they were done for centuries.

The SCA is all about having fun, even beyond the projects and tournaments, the royalty and rituals. The SCA is a fantastic opportunity to become engaged, meet new people, and share interests.

Therefore, to find out more, visit our website at <https://ansteorra.org/wiesenfeuer/>

Attend an event, or attend a meeting.

Words from our Nobility

Greetings Wiesenfeuer!

April didn't go quite as expected, but it was still a great month. We had a great showing at the Norman Medieval Fair, where we met a lot of great people and made great connections. For all of those that volunteered your time over the weekend to help show off our hobby to those fair patrons, thank you. If you have just recently found us through one of the recent demos, welcome!

We were saddened to have to postpone our event, Wiesenfeuer Baronial due to the rainy weather, but are already getting it rescheduled for June 14th. Look for more details soon.

May is very busy with May 2nd - 4th being Namron's Beltane at the beginning of the month, followed by Queen's Champion hosted by Northkeep happening on May 10th. On the May 16th-18th Northkeep's Castellan will be happening and then we will end the month with the rescheduled 2nd Vindheim Missile Academy from May 30th to June 1st, all the missiles flying through the air, plenty of planned fighting melee activities, Royal Hunter, and the premier Vindheim Arts and Science tournament happening.

Thank you to all of those people that submitted award recommendations. With the reschedule of Wiesenfeuer Baronial you have time to send in more award recommendations. It's always awesome to read about everything that people have been doing, please keep the recommendations coming.

Our itinerary for April includes:

Beltane (Norman, OK) - Both

Queen's Champion (Tulsa, OK) - Both

Northkeep's Castellan (Tulsa, OK) - Both

Vindheim Missile Academy II (Guthrie, OK) - Both

In Service,
Isaac & Eadwyn

Herald

Good day, Wiesenfeuer!

Whether near or far, Baronial or Yule, the B and B are always looking for more award recommendations to recognize the service and skills of the populace. If you can think of someone who has been working hard or done cool things for the barony, please check the baronial awards page at

<https://ansteorra.org/wiesenfeuer/baronial-awards/>

to see what they might qualify for, and submit a recommendation through the google form, or by emailing the B and B at Baron or Baroness@wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org.

The Principality of Vindheim would also love if you sent in award recommendations so they may recognize the populace whenever the Prince and Princess are in attendance. If you think someone deserves a principality award, please visit <https://ansteorra.org/vindheim/awards/> to check the Vindheim Order of Precedence, and click the link on the page to find the submission's google document form. And last, but certainly far from least, the you may find the Stellar Kingdom of Ansteorra's Order of Precedence at <https://ansteorra.org/awards/>

Their Stellar Majesties and Highnesses travel far and wide to celebrate with us and show their love to the populace, so let's make their jobs a little easier by pointing out those who have accomplished great things in the kingdom! As a reminder, any heraldic submission is still $8 per item (name, badge, or device). You can register multiple names and badges if you want. If you have an idea for a name or design but don't fully have it nailed down yet, feel free to reach out to me to schedule an online or in-person consultation.

In service,

--Lady Guinevere Llywellyn

If there is a special class you'd like to see, let me know and we'll find someone and get it on the schedule.

Guilds

Firestorm Ink

Our group consists of individuals from the Norman and Oklahoma City Metro area, gathering on a weekly basis to master and refine diverse skills utilized in creating medieval manuscripts, including calligraphy, painting, gilding, pigment paint production, and bookbinding.

The art we produce is primarily intended to honor the accomplishments of our fellow members across Ansteorra (OK and TX). We engage in crafting both completely original pieces and utilizing preprinted sheets that are ready to be painted.

Necessary supplies are generally available to assist newcomers in getting started. We convene in person on the first Tuesday of every month at Natural Grocers on SW 89th and Penn in Oklahoma City, and on the other Tuesdays, our meetings take place virtually. Everyone is welcome to attend, regardless of their interest in our activities. The link to the Google Meet is shared 30 to 60 minutes before the meeting begins on Facebook and Discord. If you would like a link to the meeting sent to you please contact Isaac Bane at isaacbane@gmail.com. Please put "Firestorm Ink Meeting Link request" in the Subject line of the email.

Vindheim Passion

Woodworker's Guild

The Woodworkers' Guild serves as a hub for individuals eager to delve into the ancient craft of woodworking, offering both education and hands-on experience.

Attendance is open to all, and admission is complimentary. The host will supply all necessary tools, with the exception of those mentioned in advance. It's common not to wear specific attire, but participants are expected to be prepared for a potentially strenuous session and to expect a bit of sawdust. To find out about upcoming meetings and where they will be held, please get in touch with us through the Baronial Facebook group "The Woodworker's Guild of Wiesenfeuer," or directly contact Ivo Blackhawk, on Discord (Pikeman#7247), Facebook (Cisco Cividanes), or via email (engtrktwo@gmail.com).

8 Curious Facts About Life in the Middle Ages

Vaduny cel Tradat

1. Eels were sometimes used as currency-- A record survives showing someone once rented land in the fenlands for 26,275 eels.
2. Archery practice was for a time compulsory for every able Englishman-- England became a breeding ground for the best archers in the world. Edward III introduced a law which made archery practice compulsory every Sunday to ensure the king always had a steady supply of archers available. The subsequent English victories at Crecy, Poitiers and Agincourt proved the law provided dividends.
3. Football was banned in England on multiple occasions-- On 13 April 1314 for instance, King Edward II issued a proclamation that banned football in London. The reason?
“...there is great noise in the city caused by hustling over large balls from which many evils may arise which God forbid; we command and forbid, on behalf of the King, on pain of imprisonment, such game to be used in the city in the future.”
4. Merchants were a class of their own-- Not only did many travel far and wide to obtain exotic goods, but merchants also had the opportunity to get very rich from imports and exports.
5. The man who carried the King's hunting birds to the hunt carried them on a wooden frame called a 'Codge'.-- These men were usually elderly and trustworthy servants, and were called 'Codgers'. This is where we get the term, 'Old Codgers'.
6. A medieval Lady, if she was very wealthy, might own as many as six metal needles.-- In the 14th century, metal needles were more expensive than diamonds.
7. After a great battle, it was often the job of the local women to help count the bodies of the men killed (lucky ladies). As dead bodies are so heavy, it was much easier to simply chop off the hand of the corpse and place it in a large canvas bag, which was later emptied for counting. The bag was commonly called a 'handbag', leading to the name we have for women's bags today. (Although, you probably wouldn't dance around one in a nightclub.)
8. During the Middle Ages, tattoos had several functions.-- Some of them were used as a form of punishment for criminals. Others were gotten by Christian pilgrims to show off their devotion and to commemorate their journey to holy sites. Some professions or people from certain social statuses also got tattoos. For example, knights would get tattooed to show their allegiance to a particular lord or kingdom, while sailors would commemorate their experiences at sea.
